The Woman Babylon and the Marks of Empire Shanell T. Smith,2014-10-01 The Great Whore of the Book of Revelation the hostile symbolization used to illustrate the author's critique of empire has attracted considerable attention in Revelation scholarship Feminist scholar Tina Pippin criticizes the use of gendered metaphors Babylon as a tortured woman which she asserts reflect an inescapably androcentric even misogynistic perspective Alternatively Elisabeth Sch ssler

Fiorenza understands John's rhetoric and imagery not simply in gendered terms but in political terms as well observing that Babylon relies on conventionally coded feminine language for a city Shanell T Smith seeks to dismantle the either or dichotomy within the Great Whore debate by bringing the categories of race ethnicity and class to bear on John's metaphors Her socio cultural context impels her to be sensitive to such categories and therefore leads her to hold the two elements woman and city in tension rather than privileging one over the other Using postcolonial womanist interpretation of the woman Babylon Smith highlights the simultaneous duality of her characterization her depiction as both a female brothel slave and as an empress or imperial city Most remarkably however Smith's reading also sheds light on her own ambivalent characterization as both a victim and participant in empire Postcolonial Studies Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2025-01-22 Now in its fourth edition this popular A Z guide provides a comprehensive overview of the issues which characterize postcolonialism explaining what it is where it is encountered and the crucial part it plays in debates about race gender politics language and identity Fully revised and updated the fourth edition contains more than 30 new entries including Anthropocene Biopolitics Decoloniality Ecocriticism Global South Postcolonial sciences Transnationalism With substantial updates to the further reading Postcolonial Studies The Key Concepts remains an essential guide for anyone studying this vibrant field A Study Guide for Grace Ogot's "The Green Leave" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Grace Ogot s The Green Leave excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Short Stories for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Short Stories for Students for all of your research needs Literature Justin D. Edwards, 2008-06-26 This Guide analyzes the criticism of English language literature from the major regions and countries of the postcolonial world Criticism on works by key writers such as Jean Rhys V S Naipaul Salman Rushdie and Jamaica Kincaid is discussed throughout the volume to illustrate the themes and concepts that are essential to an understanding of postcolonial literature and the development of criticism in the field Criticism and theoretical approaches are discussed in relation to analyses of literary works from South Africa Nigeria Jamaica Antigua Canada Australia New Zealand India and Sri Lanka Criticism on Native American writing African American literature as well as Irish Scottish and Welsh liberationist texts are also mentioned throughout The book concludes with a discussion of the theoretical debates surrounding neocolonialism globalization and what has been referred to as and the rise of a new world economic empire in the West that has accelerated since the dismantling of the Soviet Union African-American Literature Paul O. Tilden, 2003 Having its origins in the slave narratives and the folktales transmitted orally during that period the literature of the African American has been rich and varied Beginning with the first published work of fiction Clotel Or the President s Daughter in 1853 continuing under the influence of W E B Du Bois during the first part of this century and reaching a flowering during the Harlem Renaissance major contributions have been made to American literature Today African

American writers such as Toni Morrison Alex Haley and Maya Angelou are recognised as among the most significant and popular authors in this country This new book presents an important overview of African American literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography with easy access provided by title subject and author indexes The Journal of

Commonwealth Literature, 2001 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature Memory, Imagination and Desire in Contemporary Anglo-American Literature and Film Constanza del Río Álvaro, Luis M. García Mainar, 2004 This volume offers a series of analyses on the renewed interest of western culture in themes and aesthetic proposals that either look back to the past or recreate future worlds. The turn of the century has witnessed artistic efforts to reconsider past literary and cinematographic forms and adapt them to the new social concerns of contemporary artists and readers viewers Similarly science fiction and utopian narratives have attempted to reshape the world as we know it and speculate about the mysteries the future might hold for us This book includes contributions that focus on and problematise the dialogue between past present and future in literary works and films produced within the English speaking context in the last two decades of the 20th century It is divided in five sections maps of the postmodern the postcolonial experience stories revisited popular narrative genres and views of the future which attempt to include all the motifs associated with that dialogue from the interaction of memory and history to the reformulation of old stories and forms or the representation of dystopian and utopian futures Indian Women's Writing in English Joel Kuortti, 2002 This is a remarkable collection of information on Indian women's writing written originally in English Beginning from the 19th century it introduces 444 writers of poetry and fiction Now it has been a part of common critical parlance to say that the Indian English women's writing is in ascendance One aim of this bibliography is to illustrate this phenomenon and to emphasise the variety of writing Writers included in the bibliography come from all over India and from the Indian diaspora all over the world Another aim of this bibliography is to make us aware of the constructed nature of writerhood A given writer s texts do not exist and circulate in a vacuum but in a context We can see that Indian English women's writing is taking place But what we do not see is the critical establishment that is literary scholars and critics taking much note of it Canada from the Outside in Pierre Anctil, Zilá Bernd, 2006 In this collection specialists examine often through a comparative filter themes related to migrant literatures cultural diversity and aspects of Canadian state policy. The results of this examination offer an overview of Canadian society which as most contemporary societies must address various issues Xenophobic Memories Monika Gomille, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2003 Tense Past, Tense Present Joel Kuortti, 2003 Suggesting that women are reshaping English as Rushdie suggests Kuortti interviews 7 women writers to find out why they write in English which cannot be neutral As a colony the language was inescapably associated with class race and power after independence it has grown in power and status yet the problematic of English as the language of the hegemonic West remains Even so a new canon of women writing in English is being formed Interviewing the writers Shashi Deshpande the late Shama Futehally

Githa Hariharan Lakshmi Kannan Sujatha Mathai Anuradha Marwah Roy and Mina Singh Kuortti also presents extracts from their writings The Writers Directory, 2013 Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Nineteenth Century
