Wilson, Cristina Sandru, Sarah Lawson Welsh, 2009-12-16 Rerouting the Postcolonial re orientates and re invigorates the field of Postcolonial Studies in line with recent trends in critical theory reconnecting the ethical and political with the aesthetic aspect of postcolonial culture Bringing together a group of leading and emerging intellectuals this volume charts and challenges the diversity of postcolonial studies including sections on new directions and growth areas from performance and autobiography to diaspora and transnationalism new subject matters such as sexuality and queer theory ecocriticism and discussions of areas of Europe as postcolonial spaces new theoretical directions such as globalization fundamentalism terror and theories of affect Each section incorporates a clear concise introduction making this volume both an accessible overview of the field whilst also an invigorating collection of scholarship for the new millennium Postcolonialism Diana

Brydon, 2023 First published in 2004 This is Volume II of Postcolonialism part of a series of critical concepts in literary and cultural studies This edition includes part four National Third World and Postcolonial Identities part five covering Colonial Discourse Analysis Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess, 2008-05-24 Despite being central to the project of postcolonialism the concept of resistance has received only limited theoretical examination Writers such as Frantz Fanon

Edward Said and Homi K Bhabha have explored instances of revolt opposition or subversion but there has been insufficient critical analysis of the concept of resistance particularly as it relates to liberation or social and cultural transformation In Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess looks to redress this critical imbalance Jefferess argues that interpreting resistance as these critics have done as either acts of opposition or practices of subversion is insufficient He discerns in the existing critical literature an alternate paradigm for postcolonial politics and through close analyses of the work of Mohandas Gandhi and the South African reconciliation project Postcolonial Resistance seeks to redefine resistance to reconnect an analysis of colonial discourse to material structures of colonial exploitation and inequality Engaging works of postcolonial fiction literary criticism historiography and cultural theory Jefferess conceives of resistance and reconciliation as dependent upon the transformation of both the colonial subject and the antagonistic nature of colonial power In doing so he reframes postcolonial conceptions of resistance violence and liberation thus inviting future scholarship in the field to reconsider past conceptualizations of political power and opposition to that power Gothic: Eighteenth-century Gothic : Radcliffe, reader, writer, romancer Fred Botting,Dale Townshend,2004-05 This collection brings together key writings which convey the breadth of what is understood to be Gothic and the ways in which it has produced reinforced and undermined received ideas about literature and culture In addition to its interests in the late eighteenth century origins of the form this collection anthologizes path breaking essays on most aspects of gothic production including some of its nineteenth twentieth and twenty first century manifestations across a broad range of cultural media Narrative Theory: Interdisciplinarity Mieke Bal,2004 Postcolonialism Diana Brydon,2022 This is Volume IV of Postcolonialism part of a series of critical concepts in literary and cultural studies This edition includes Part nine and includes works on internal colonialism and subaltern studies
