Postmodern Literary Theory An Anthology:

Postmodern Literary Theory Niall Lucy, 2000-02-08 Literature today is a very different concept from that of only a generation ago and this difference is attributed usually to postmodernism Most radical of all is the possibility that the very notion of literature is rendered untenable by postmodernism How did this possibility arise Who are the key figures responsible for its emergence which are the key texts of its expression This Anthology provides ways of responding to such questions

Postmodern Literary Theory Niall Lucy, 1997-12-29 In this brilliantly provocative and comprehensively informative introductory text Niall Lucy shows the student how postmodern literary theory works what its origins are and what its consequences

Metafiktion und Ästhetik in Christa Wolfs "Nachdenken über Christa T.", "Kindheitsmuster" und "Sommerstück" Ursula Ackrill, 2004 Oftmals wird die Prosa Christa Wolfs aus Interesse an ihrem dokumentarischen Wert als Aussage einer prominenten DDR Zeugin des Kalten Kriegs über das politische Klima ihrer Entstehungszeit gelesen Dieser Band nimmt sich wiederum die originelle Ästhetik der Prosa Wolfs zum Thema und bringt in diesem Sinn die Verbindungen zu einem erweiterten Kontext von fiktionalen Diskursen in den Vordergrund Anhand von Vergleichen mit Texten von Virginia Woolf Thomas Mann und Jurek Becker wird auch die Frage danach erörtert welche Richtung Wolf im Spektrum der modernen Schreibstile einschlägt Als Nachkriegsautorin beginnt Wolf eine Ästhetik anzuwenden die sich von der modernen Neutralität des Erzählens gegenüber dem Material seiner Geschichten absetzt Das Habit der Erzählinstanzen Wolfs von der Metaebene in den Erzählfluss einzugreifen und Unterbrechungen zu veranstalten um den Leser von ihren Gedanken beim Schreiben zu unterrichten ist die ontologische Geschlossenheit der Erzählung auf und droht der fiktionalen Konstruktion ein Ende im Sprachregister des Essays der Erbauungsliteratur zuweilen auch des Geständnisses zu setzen Dass Wolfs Nachdenken über Christa T Kindheitsmuster und Sommerstück trotzdem nicht zum Genre Sachliteratur gehören wird mit der Kunstfertigkeit der Erzählstrategien Wolfs begründet von denen spezifisch die Metafiktion im Verhältnis zur Ästhetik der gewählten Texte erörtert wird

Factual Fictions Leonora Flis, 2010-08-11 Factual Fictions Narrative Truth and the Contemporary American Documentary Novel focuses on contemporary American documentary narratives specifically the documentary novel as it re-emerged in the 1960s and later developed into various other forms The book explores the connections between the documentary novel and the concurrent rise of New Journalism aka literary journalism in the United States situating the two genres in the cultural context of the tumultuous 1960s and an emerging postmodern ethos Flis makes a comprehensive analysis of texts by Truman Capote Norman Mailer John Berendt and Don

DeLillo while tackling discussions on various theoretical complexities with assurance and rigor Interested in the precarious divide between fact and fiction the author productively complicates traditional notions of the two poles Furthermore the book examines parallels between contemporary Slovene documentary narratives and their American counterparts Flis s work with its systematic and innovative approach to the subject matter adds an important historical dimension to the developing field of literary journalism studies as well as to the more established area of 20th Century American literature The Ecstatic Poetic Tradition D.J. Moores,2014-05-26

This work is not only a general inquiry into ecstatic states of consciousness and an historical outline of the ecstatic poetic tradition but also an intensive study of five representative poets Rumi Wordsworth Whitman Dickinson and Tagore In a refreshingly original wide ranging engagement with concepts in psychology religion philosophy aesthetics sociology and history this book demonstrates that the poetics and aesthetics of ecstasy represent an ancient ubiquitous theory of poetry that continues to influence writers in the current century Research Methods in Rebekka Reinhardt's metatheoretical investigation poses the question of how an ethically and politically engaged literary theory can be developed in light of the insight into the contingency of values and facts. This leads to a critical engagement with the most important positions of contemporary linguistic criticism, literary theory, and ethics. From Davidson and Rorty to Butler, Levinas, and Derrida.

The Blackwell Guide to Literary Theory Gregory Castle, 2009-02-04 This student friendly text introduces students to the history and scope of literary theory as well as showing them how to perform literary analysis. Designed to be used alongside primary theoretical texts as an introduction to theory or alongside literary texts as a model for performing literary analysis. Presents a series of exemplary readings of particular literary texts such as Jane Eyre, Heart of Darkness, Ulysses, To the Lighthouse, and Midnight's Children. Provides a brief history of the rise of literary theory in the twentieth century in order that students understand the historical contexts for different theories. Presents an alphabetically organized series of entries on key figures and publications from Adorno to Iser. Features descriptions of the major movements in literary theory from critical theory through to postcolonial theory.

International Postmodernism Johannes Willem Bertens, Hans Bertens, Douwe Fokkema, 1997 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars. International Postmodernism divides into four main sections. The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing. The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world. Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism. The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism, equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader, i.e. the reader's knowledge, experience, interests, and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation. This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference. The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism.

As the promised science of the social life of signs in general, semiotics has not been good to its word. Although well established institutionally today through specialist journals, research centres, international conferences, professional associations, and the like, semiotics now seems quaintly out of place in a world where text culture and technology defy metadisciplinary if not metaphysical explanation When the semiotician has finished explaining the music of Primal Scream the textuality of an email message or the culture of the internet most would believe there was still lots to be said A generation ago the radical humanities scholar turned to semiotics for the last word on news production cinematic desire or the meaning of youth style Today that last word which is always the latest word too is more likely to go to cultural studies literary theory or postmodernism all of which are in several senses beyond semiotics even while remaining indebted to it In addition we can't so easily presume to separate notions of production and desire say or news and cinema precisely because we can no longer say for sure where the differences lie between notions of text culture and technology Beyond Semiotics provides an approach to these three interdependent concepts of text culture and technology in order to show what semiotics had always had to marginalize forget or not see in the quest to professionalize itself Meanwhile outside the limitation of any discipline the secular mysteries of text culture and technology today continue to call for a response not with the aim of laying bare the truth but of opening up the sign
