Postmodern Literature:

Cultural Identity and Postmodern Writing Theo d'. Haen, Pieter Vermeulen, 2006 This volume seeks to ascertain the relationship obtaining between the specific form postmodernism assumes in a given culture and the national narrative in which that culture traditionally recognizes itself Theo D haen provides a general introduction to the issue of cultural identity and postmodern writing Jos Joosten and Thomas Vaessens take a look at Dutch literature and particular Dutch poetry in relation to postmodernism Robert Haak and Andrea Kunne do the same with regard to respectively German and Austrian literature while Roel Daamen turns to Scottish literature Patricia Krus discusses postmodernism in relation to Caribbean literature and Kristian van Haesendonck and Nanne Timmer turn their attention to Puerto Rican and Cuban literature while Adriana Churampi deals with Peruvian literature Finally Markha Valenta investigates the roots of the postmodernism debate in the United States

Postmodern Literary Theory Niall Lucy, 2000-02-08 Literature today is a very different concept from that of only a generation ago and this difference is attributed usually to postmodernism Most radical of all is the possibility that the very notion of literature is rendered untenable by postmodernism How did this possibility arise Who are the key figures responsible for its emergence which are the key texts of its expression This Anthology provides ways of responding to such questions

The Dismemberment of Orpheus Ihab Hassan, 1982 In this book the first edition of which was published in 1971 by Oxford University Press Ihab Hassan takes Orphic dismemberment and regeneration as his metaphor for a radical crisis in art and language culture and consciousness which prefigures postmodern literature The modern Orpheus he writes sings on a lyre without strings Thus his sensitive critique traces a hypothetical line from Sade through four modern authors Hemingway Kafka Genet and Beckett to a literature still to come But the line also breaks into two Interludes one concerning Pataphysics Dada and Surrealism and the other concerning Existentialism and Aliterature Combining literary history brief biography and critical analysis Hassan surrounds these authors with a complement of avant garde writers whose works also foreshadow the postmodern temper These include Jarry Apollinaire Tzara Breton Sartre Camus Nathalie Sarraute Robbe Grillet and in America Cage Salinger Ginsberg Barth and Burroughs Hassan takes account also of related contemporary developments in art music and philosophy and of many works of literary theory and criticism For this new edition Hassan has added a new preface and postface on the developing character of postmodernism a concept which has gained currency since the first edition of this work and which he himself has done much to theorize

Ethics in Postmodern Fiction Barbara Schwerdtfeger, 2005 Postmodern texts have generally been associated with a radical challenge of established conventions and with an anything goes mentality which seems to exclude serious ethical discussion While the postmodern texts of the American novel and short story writers Donald Barthelme and William Gass indeed challenge traditional ethical rules they are nonetheless deeply concerned with moral questions Using contemporary ethics as its theoretical framework the study shows that the fiction of Barthelme and Gass not only makes readers aware of the complexity of ethical issues but also argues that the premise for good ethical behavior is to have the right postmodern attitude to be open minded flexible and able to deal with the ambiguities of life Retrospectively these findings can also be applied to other postmodern writers to reveal the hidden ethical dimensions of their fictions

Postmodern Literature Ian Gregson,2004-06-25 A fascinating variety of writing has been produced in the period since the Second World War Much of this can be helpfully understood by reference to postmodernism Many important texts in the period however are distorted when this label is applied to them and others are actively anti postmodernist Postmodern Literature accessibly defines postmodernism compares and contrasts it with modernism and places it in its historical context especially in relation to crucial phenomena like Auschwitz the clashing of ideologies and the prevalence of propaganda and misinformation It discusses the major theorists of postmodernism Jean Francois Lyotard Fredric Jameson and Jean Baudrillard and demonstrates how their theories illuminate the work of postmodernist writers such as John Ashbery Walter Abish and Angela Carter It defines the key postmodern theories of language race and gender poststructuralism postcolonialism and feminism and explores their often fraught relationships with postmodernism in relation to important writers such as Toni Morrison Adrienne Rich and Salman Rushdie

The Cambridge Introduction to Postmodern Fiction Bran Nicol,2009-10-08 Postmodern fiction presents a challenge to the reader instead of enjoying it passively the reader has to work to understand its meanings to think about what fiction is and to question their own responses Yet this very challenge makes postmodern writing so much fun to read and rewarding to study Unlike most introductions to postmodernism and fiction this book places the emphasis on literature rather than theory It introduces the most prominent British and American novelists associated with postmodernism from the pioneers Beckett Borges and Burroughs to important post war writers such as Pynchon Carter Atwood Morrison Gibson Auster DeLillo and Ellis Designed for students and clearly written this Introduction explains the preoccupations styles and techniques that unite postmodern authors Their work is characterized by a self reflexive acknowledgement of its status as fiction and by the various ways in which it challenges readers to question common sense and commonplace assumptions about literature

Postmodernism and the Acoustic Environment of the Vietnam War in Tim O'Brien's "The Things They Carried" Urs Endhardt,2014-03-03 Seminar paper from the year 2013 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 3 University of Basel language English abstract During the course of this seminar paper I will show how O'Brien describes the Vietnam War and its accompanying acoustic environment as a loud and chaotic cacophony where no clear boundaries and no easily identifiable enemy exist Thereby and by the way in which O'Brien employs characteristics typical for postmodern fiction the novel can be seen as an exemplary postmodern representation of the Vietnam War For the understanding and distinction of the terms postmodernism and postmodernity I will include a discussion of their characteristics Postmodern Fiction in Europe and the Americas Theo d'. Haen, Johannes Willem Bertens, 1988 From Modernism to Postmodernism Gerhard Hoffmann, 2016-08-01 This systemic study discusses in its historical cultural and aesthetic context the postmodern American novel between the years of 1960 and 1980 A general overview of the various definitions of postmodernism in philosophy cultural theory and aesthetics provides the framework for the inquiry into more specific problems such as the broadening of aesthetics the relationship between aesthetics and ethics the transformation of the artistic tradition the interdependence between modernism and postmodernism and the change in the aesthetics of fiction Other topics addressed here include situationalism montage the ordinary and the fantastic the subject and the character the imagination comic modes and the future of the postmodern strategies The authors whose fiction is treated in some detail under the various aspects thematized are John Barth Donald Barthelme Richard Brautigan Robert Coover Stanley Elkin Raymond Federman William Gaddis John Hawkes Jerzy Kosinski Thomas Pynchon Ishmael Reed Ronald Sukenick and Kurt Vonnegut The Idea of the Postmodern Hans Bertens, 2003-09-02 Hans Bertens s The Idea of the Postmodern is the first introductory historical overview of postmodernism to succeed in providing a witty and useful guide for today s student An enjoyable and indispensable text The Idea of the Postmodern Johannes Willem Bertens, 1995 On Postmodernism Postmodern Filming of Literature Joyce L. Arriola, 2006 International Postmodernism Hans Bertens, Douwe W. Fokkema, 1997-02-20 Containing more than fifty essays by major literary scholars International Postmodernism divides into four main sections The volume starts off with a section of eight introductory studies dealing with the subject from different points of view followed by a section that deals with postmodernism in other arts than literature while a third section discusses renovations of narrative genres and other strategies and devices in postmodernist writing The final and fourth section deals with the reception and processing of postmodernism in different parts of the world Three important aspects add to the special character of International Postmodernism The consistent distinction between postmodernity and postmodernism equal attention to the making and diffusion of postmodernism and the workings of literature in general and the focus on the text and the reader i e the reader s knowledge experience interests and competence as crucial factors in text interpretation This comprehensive study does not expressly focus on American postmodernism although American interpretations of postmodernism are a major point of reference The recognition that varying literary and cultural conditions in this world are bound to produce endless varieties of postmodernism made the editors Hans Bertens and Douwe Fokkema opt for the title International Postmodernism Modern/Postmodern Peter V. Zima, 2010-08-05 Modern Postmodern Society Philosophy Literature offers new definitions of modernism and postmodernism by presenting an original theoretical system of thought that explains the differences between these two key movements Taking a contrastive approach Peter V Zima identifies three key concepts in the relationship between modernism and postmodernism ambiguity ambivalence and indifference Zima defines modernism and postmodernism as problematics as opposed to aesthetics stylistics or ideologies Unlike modernism which is grounded in an increasing ambivalence towards social norms and values postmodernity is presented as an era of indifference i e of interchangeable norms values and perspectives Taking an historical interdisciplinary and intercultural approach that engages with Anglo American and European debates the book describes the transition from late modernist ambivalence to postmodern indifference in the contexts of philosophy literature and sociology This is the ideal guide to the relationship between modernism and postmodernism for students and scholars throughout the humanities 'Closing the Gap' Theo d'. Haen,Johannes Willem Bertens,1997 Postmodern Studies ,2004 The Cambridge History of Postmodern Literature Brian McHale,Len Platt,2016-03-22 The Cambridge History of Postmodern Literature offers a comprehensive survey of the field from its emergence in the mid twentieth century to the present day It offers an unparalleled examination of all facets of postmodern writing that helps readers to understand how fiction and poetry literary criticism feminist theory mass media and the visual and fine arts have characterized the historical development of postmodernism Covering subjects from the Cold War and countercultures to the Latin American Boom and magic realism this History traces the genealogy of a literary tradition while remaining grounded in current scholarship It also presents new critical approaches to postmodern literature that will serve the needs of students and specialists alike Written by a host of leading scholars this History will not only engage readers in contemporary debates but also serve as a definitive reference for years to come
