Postmodern Journeys:

Postmodern Journeys Joseph Natoli, 2001-01-01 Part memoir part cultural criticism this fast paced ride through the postmodern landscape of American popular culture explores how our responses to headline events and popular films help script the ways in which we imagine ourselves and the world around us     Blickwendungen Kai Kappel, Erik Wegerhoff, 2019 Warum bloss Italien Im 20 und fr hen 21 Jahrhundert bieten sich andere L nder und Kulturen als weitaus unverbrauchtere Inspirationsr ume Immaginationsarsenale an Gleichwohl bleibt Italien f r reisende Architektinnen und Architekten weiterhin eine Quelle der Inspiration Allerdings in einem anderen Kontext in einer gr sseren Zersplitterung der Ursachen und entsprechend auch der Erfahrungen und des Nachhalls Verst rkt in den Blick ger t das Italien abseits gewohnter Routen und damit das Nicht Selbstverst ndliche Die Beitr ge dieses Bandes umreißen das Ph nomen der modernen postmodernen und gegenw rtigen Italienreise Sie zeichnen dabei ein vielf ltiges widerspr chliches und unerwartetes Bild eines Landes wie auch des Architekturgeschehens dieser Zeit     Jahresbibliographie Massenkommunikation ,2003     Female Journeys Claire Marrone, 2000-06-30 In this study of 19th and 20th century French and Italian women s autobiography the author illustrates how the protagonists development unfolds through separation from oppressive social and familial structures Reading the selected life stories as bildungsromane and drawing on an array of both canonical and noncanonical texts in the various autobiographical subgenres Marrone concludes that the heroines movements away from oppressive structures are not limited to particular historical periods but are motivated by historical and cultural circumstances She thoughtfully traces the reasons why a 19th century protagonist might leave her country a turn of the century heroine might flee her family and a modern female character might separate from her mother carefully examining their motivations and their goals In telling their stories she concludes women writers continually challenge existing autobiographical conventions Marrone finds that postmodern texts prove that the journey toward selfhood may be an ongoing one one that unfolds through the creation of multiple life stories The author begins her study with a consideration of the tradition of women s autobiography in French and Italian literature of the 19th and 20th centuries Using several examples from various genres she brings issues of gender oppression marital abuse sexuality and motherhood to the forefront of the discussion She continues by analyzing the genres of autobiography and bildungsroman where they overlap and where they diverge specifically in women s writing Turning to specific authors and their works Marrone moves on to an analysis of the writings of Cristina Trivulzio di Belgiojoso C D eleste Mogador Sibilla Aleramo Oriana Fallaci Marie Cardinal and Annie Ernaux In examining the works of these writers the author concludes that women writers continue to attempt to define themselves in their own voices Marrone finds that postmodern writers participate in innovative experimentation in life writing hybrid texts creative auto biographies and collective life stories This clearly written engaging volume is a pivotal addition to the growing field of literature on autobiography

Postmodernism Debates Lorraine Landry, 2000-09-30 This book is a meticulous argument for the contemporary value of Marx's democratic theory as an interpretive key for the postmodernism debates Landry uses the works of Derrida Foucault and Lyotard to represent the poststructuralist camp and the writings of Habermas to represent the rationalist camp Viable social critique argues Landry mediates between pure social constructivist and pure realist metaphysics Postmodernism although critical of Marx aided the broader project of critical social theory particularly Marx's critique of social material contexts of oppression Indeed significant positive affiliations among Marx Habermas and the poststructuralists are found in their commitment to criticizing ideological aspects of bourgeois Enlightenment rationality and modernity Landry employs a fruitful tension strategy as seeking rapprochement among the modern and postmodern positions on hotly debated contemporary issues such as subjectivity criticism and the nature of reason Marxism continues to provide critical tools for articulating productive conflict within the postmodernism debates advancing of strategies of critique beyond identity politics toward a more self reflective ideological discussion of the multiple axes of power and oppression in political struggles over democracy In this unique study complex philosophical issues are described lucidly and their relevance for today is established compellingly The Philosopher's Index, 1992 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts Steinbeck Yearbook, 2000

Life-world and Politics Stephen K. White, 1989 Eight essays in honor of political philosopher Fred Dallmayr explore issues of subjectivity and inter subjectivity elucidating the implications of postmodernism and the phenomenological tradition for contemporary ethics and political theory The contributors include Dallmayr William E Connolly and Jean Bethke Elshtain Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Portraying Prior Walter's and Harper Pitt's progressive journey in Tony Kushner's "Angels in America", 2023-05-31 Seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1 3 University of Duisburg Essen Department of Anglophone Studies language English abstract In this paper I will take a look at how Kushner's characters Prior and Harper deal with challenges in the changes in the postmodern world of the 1980s Tony Kushner's two part drama Angels of America A Gay Fantasia on National Themes takes place at the height of America's conservative politics and culture in the mid 1980s under the leadership of Ronald Reagan. The very complex drama depicts the life of a group of people from New York against the background of national themes which examines the AIDS epidemic and political situation during that time. Scholars who explore the play from the historical, political and sociological point of view claim that it reconstructs the American nation. I will focus on the notation of progress and change which exemplifies our struggle between staying put and our need to move forward. I will investigate the progress of two special characters who were considered as either weak or insane at the beginning of the play but as they went through life-changing challenges they became independent and strong personalities. As Fisher pointed out, the play proceeds to explore the deep anxieties of its characters through their visions of the forces that effect and control their lives and as they discover their own strengths and weaknesses. How to move forward into an uncertain future if things around us are collapsing is one main question of Tony Kushner's play. He encourages people to move forward, releasing from the past and to embrace uncertainty because humans just need to progress and change although it is very painful sometimes. The character Prior sums it up in her final monologue telling us that the world only spins forward. In a broader sense, the question arises how these small human triumphs relate to the play's larger political themes. Progress, especially in today's postmodern era, is mostly considered positive and helpful considering how newly gained knowledge and technology make life so much easier and more pleasant. Nevertheless, in a progressing world, humanity faces many problems, for example, environmental pollution. Besides traditions and old values disappear or get replaced while isolation and selfishness proceed. Road Movies Norbert Grob, Thomas Klein, 2006      Unsere postmoderne Moderne Wolfgang Iser, 1988      Technologisches Zeitalter oder Postmoderne Walther Christoph Zimmerli, 1988      Choice, 2001
