Postmodernities Histories The Past As Legacy And Project:

Postmodernity's Histories Arif Dirlik, 2000-10-18 Challenges to the conventional study of history have been raised by the recent paradigm of globalization and by new intellectual transformations linked to postmodernism and postcolonialism In this book the noted historian Arif Dirlik argues for a new approach to the practice of historical research Moving beyond mere critique he synthesizes traditional historical methods with new approaches that emphasize historical memory indigenous writing place based history and the dual processes of integration and fragmentation in a globalized world The houses of history Anna Green, Kathleen Troup, 2016-08-15 The houses of history is a clear jargon free introduction to the major theoretical approaches employed by historians This innovative critical reader provides accessible introductions to fourteen schools of thought from the empiricist to the postcolonial including chapters on Marxist history Freud and psychohistory the Annales historical sociology narrative gender public history and the history of the emotions Each chapter begins with a succinct description of the ideas integral to a particular theory The authors then explore the insights and controversies arising from the application of this model drawing upon debates and examples from around the world Each chapter concludes with a representative example from a historian writing within this conceptual framework This newly revised edition of the highly successful textbook is the ideal basis for an introductory course in history and theory for students of history at all levels

A Social History of Late Ottoman Women Duygu Köksal, Anastasia Falierou, 2013-10-10 In A Social History of the Late Ottoman Women New Perspectives Duygu Köksal and Anastasia Falierou bring together new research on women of different geographies and communities of the late Ottoman Empire Making use of archives literary works diaries newspapers almanacs art works or cartoons the contributors focus particularly on the ways in which women gained power and exercised agency in late Ottoman Empire and early Republican Turkey The articles convincingly show that women s agency cannot be unearthed without narrating how women were involved in shaping their own and others lives even in the most unexpected areas of their existence The women s activities described here do not simply reflect modernizing trends or westernizing attitudes or their defensive denial They provide an array of local responses where the local can never be found and should never be conceptualized in its initial unchanged or authentic state The New World History Ross E.

Dunn, Laura J. Mitchell, Kerry Ward, 2016-08-23 The New World History is a comprehensive volume of essays selected to enrich world history teaching and scholarship in this rapidly expanding field The forty four articles in this book take stock of the history evolving literature and current trajectories of new world history These essays together with the editors introductions to thematic chapters encourage educators and students to reflect critically on the development of the field and to explore concepts approaches and insights valuable to their own work The selections are organized in ten chapters that survey the history of the movement the seminal ideas of founding thinkers and today s practitioners changing concepts of world historical space and time comparative methods environmental history the big history movement globalization debates over the meaning of Western power and ongoing questions about the intellectual premises and assumptions that have shaped the field

Postmodernity's Histories Arif Dirlik, 2000 Challenges to the study of history have been raised by globalization and by new transformations linked to postmodernism and postcolonialism This book puts forward new approaches in historical research that emphasize the dual processes of integration and fragmentation in a globalized world

The Postmodern History Reader Keith Jenkins, 1997 The Postmodern History Reader introduces students to the new points of controversy in the study of history and provides a framework by which to understand postmodernism and a guide to explore it further

History After the Three Worlds Arif Dirlik, Vinay Bahl, Peter Gran, 2000-11-22 This ambitious volume provides a comparative perspective on the challenges facing the discipline of history as Eurocentrism fades as a lens for viewing the world Exploring the state of history and the struggle over its ownership throughout the world the authors address the issues of globalization postmodernism and postcolonialism that have been largely ignored by practicing historians despite their importance to cultural studies and their relevance to history Engaging in a vigorous critique of Eurocentrism the volume at the same time reaffirms the importance of historical ways of knowing

Hallucinating the End of History Eric Cunningham, 2007 This monograph explores and describes the historical continuities and relationships between 20th c Zen Buddhism the postwar psychedelic movement and postmodern eschatology In general terms and this is a rich complex study the work is a critique of modernization theory as a way of viewing history and suggests the modern epoch like the Greco Roman world before it will only end when the modern world ends Accordingly many postmodern movements seek to end modernity through violent action Germany and Japan in WW11 etc while others seek to bring to an end modern consciousness e g the psychedelic movement which posed a major historical challenge to bourgeois morality values and modes of experiencing space and time The core of the study is a critique of the historical philosophy of Japan s greatest modern philosopher Nishida Kitaro and in particular his historical eschatology Cunningham examines the Zen based metaphysics of Nishida s thought and links this to historical resonances between the philosopher 20th c Zen Buddhism The West s leading theorist DT Suzuki was a friend of Nishida and the psychedelic New Age movement which as sought to achieve authentic experience outside of history History and Ideas Series No 2 This work is a valuable addition to research library collections that focus on Japan 20th alternative movements Zen and or the philosophy of history Dr Elizabeth Koda

Communication Research Methods in Postmodern Culture Larry Z. Leslie, 2017-09-22 The second edition of Communication Research Methods in Postmodern Culture continues to explore research from a postmodern perspective Typical qualitative and quantitative research methods are adjusted to fit the needs of contemporary culture Each chapter is updated with new information and fresh examples Included in the second edition is a new chapter on Internet and social media research The author uses straightforward and easy to understand language Both individual and group projects are among the suggested activities This book is important for the study of communication in a changing political social economic
