Poussin, the Early Years in Rome Konrad Oberhuber, Nicolas Poussin, 1988 Poussin's Women Troy Thomas, 2025-10-01

Poussin's Women Sex and Gender in the Artist's Works examines the paintings and drawings of the well known seventeenth century French painter Nicolas Poussin 1594 1665 from a gender studies perspective focusing on a critical analysis of his representations of women The book's thematic chapters investigate Poussin's women in their roles as predators as lustful or the objects of lust as lovers killers victims heroines or models of virtue Poussin's paintings reflect issues of gender within his social situation as he consciously or unconsciously articulated its conflicts and assumptions A gender studies approach brings to light new critical insights that illuminate how the artist represented women both positively and negatively within the framework in his seventeenth century culture This book covers the artist's works from Classical mythology Roman history Tasso and the Bible It serves as a good overview of Poussin as an artist discussing the latest research and including new interpretations of his major works Poussin's Paintings David Carrier, 1993 Art History and Its Institutions Elizabeth Mansfield, 2005-08-18

Art History and Its Institutions focuses on the institutional discourses that shaped and continue to shape the field from its foundations in the nineteenth century From museums and universities to law courts labour organizations and photography studios contributors examine a range of institutions considering their impact on movements such as modernism their role in conveying or denying legitimacy and their impact on defining the parameters of the discipline The Arts of France from François Ier to Napoléon Ier Guy Wildenstein, Joseph Baillio, Wildenstein and Company (New York, N.Y.), 2005 Painting as a Way of Life Richard Neer, 2025-03-19

Neer uncovers a key moment in the history of early modern art when painting was understood to be a tool for self transformation and for living a philosophical life In this wide ranging study Richard Neer shows how French painters of the seventeenth century developed radically new ways to connect art perception and ethics Cutting across traditional boundaries of classicism and realism Neer addresses four case studies Nicolas Poussin renowned for marrying ancient philosophy and narrative painting Louise Moillon who pioneered French still life in the 1630s Georges de La Tour a painter of intense and introspective nocturnes and the Brothers Le Nain specialists in genre and portraiture who inspired Courbet Manet and other painters of modern life Setting these artists in dialogue with Montaigne Descartes Pascal and others ranging from the studios of Rome to the streets of Paris this book provides fresh accounts of essential artworks some well known others neglected and new ways to approach the relation of art theory and daily life The Dictionary of Seventeenth-century French Philosophers: L-Z Luc Foisneau, 2008 The Seventeenth Century French Paintings National Gallery (Great Britain), Humphrey Wine, 2001

Since 1957 when Martin Davies published The French School an unprecedented amount of research has been undertaken on French seventeenth century artists Taking account of this Humphrey Wine has written afresh on the seventeenth century paintings in Davies's catalogue he has also written detailed entries on all subsequent acquisitions in this field These include as well as paintings by
