Poverty And Human Rights A Theological Perspective:

Poverty and Human Rights Moses P. Manohar, 1997 Theology and the Boundary Discourse of Human Rights Ethna Regan, 2010-04-14 What are human rights Can theology acknowledge human rights discourse Is theological engagement with human rights justified What place should this discourse occupy within ethics Ethna Regan seeks to answer these questions about human rights Christian theology and philosophical ethics The main purpose of this book is to justify and explore theological engagement with human rights Regan illustrates how that engagement is both ecumenical and diverse citing the emerging engagement with human rights discourse by evangelical theologians in response to the War on Terror The book examines where the themes and concerns of key modern theologians Karl Rahner J B Metz Jon Sobrino and Ignacio Ellacur a converge with the themes and concerns of those committed to the advancement of human rights Regan also critically engages with the disdain for rights discourse that is found in the postliberal critiques of John Milbank and Stanley Hauerwas This interdisciplinary volume will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of systematic theology theological ethics human rights religion and politics and political theory Christianity and Human Rights Frederick M. Shepherd, 2009-07-15 In Christianity and Human Rights Christians and the Struggle for Global Justice Frederick M Shepherd has collected essays by scholars and activists who in a wide variety of ways confront the issue of Christianity s role in the burgeoning movement for human rights The volume s contributors provide diverse perspectives on the theology behind the idea of human rights the debate over the its meaning and the evolution of the struggle for human rights A wide variety of disciplinary perspectives are represented from economics political science and law to history philosophy and theology The essays also represent a broad political spectrum including specific accounts from activists participating in the struggle for human rights Separate chapters focus on cases from Europe Africa Latin America and Asia Christianity and Human Rights begins and ends with attempts to synthesize current theory and practice acknowledging both Christianity s great success and its failures in defending basic human rights around the globe Global Poverty Justin Thacker, 2017-05-12 Christian authors have argued either for a free market solution to global poverty or for a radical reform of global capitalism but the theological underpinnings of such conclusions are noticeable by their absence Justin Thacker offers a new way forward He suggests deeply theological answers to questions around the effect of capitalism on global poverty Limits of Liberation Elina Vuola, 2002-09-19 How far are the real lives of millions of poor women really catered for in liberation and feminist theologies Vuola argues here that traditional liberation theology s notion of praxis as in L Boff and E Dussel is limited by its essentialist notion of poor and its neglect of the issue of poor women s reproductive rights Classical feminist theologies on the other hand are fraught with their own essentialist notions women s experience Both discourses are inadequate to deal with poor women s suffering widespread maternal mortality high rates of botched illegal abortions and an overall lack of reproductive rights As a response to this lack Vuola nurtures a form of Latin American feminist liberation theology that addresses directly the suffering and death of these millions of women Is there a God of Human Rights? Johannes A. van der Ven, Jaco Dreyer, Hendrik Pieterse, 2005-04-01 This volume deals with historical systematic and empirical questions with regard to the complex relationship between human rights and religion It focuses on the place and function of human rights in democracies in modern society Moreover it elaborates on the problems which are implied in the complex relationship between human rights and religion from the beginning Lastly it investigates the positive negative and ambivalent empirical effects of religious attitudes on human rights attitudes among some youth in South Africa The Human Image of God Hans-Georg Ziebertz, 2001 What or who is God in the modern era This is the question examined in this volume through systematic studies practical theology and empirical research The findings are presented through anthropologically relevant theology Food Justice and Hospitality in Luke-Acts Gideon S. S. Paulraj, 2023-05-23 Food security is a multifaceted concept and extends beyond the production of availability of and demand for food This book attempts to explore the meal narrations in Luke Acts as a source for a theology of hospitality to ascertain Luke s concern for the immigrant the poor the homeless the hungry and the outcasts This book focuses on fifteen meal scenes in Luke Acts and contributes to Lukan scholarship on meals particularly in addressing the issue of food insecurity Firstly by incorporating cultural dimensions and anthropology to understand the social context of the first century world this book contributes a new perspective on the Lukan audience which was stratified by socioeconomic and religious disparities in terms of privilege wealth and power Secondly this book analyzes the Lukan concern with the social structure and the social political economic and religious setting behind his emphasis on the pto set macron over o choi and the marginalized concerning livelihood needs such as food and shelter Thirdly this book connects Lukan concern with contemporary theologies that include an emphasis on hunger and hospitality such as liberation theology Dalit theology and practical theology Thus the book challenges readers and offers a few recommendations for implementations to combat hunger and destitution Religion and Society ,2003 National Council of Churches Review ,1996 Human Rights for the 1990s Robert Blackburn, John Taylor (C.M.G.), 1991 Rights by Robert Blackburn Missionalia ,2008 A Theology of Poverty Reduction in Tanzania Abednego Keshomshahara, 2008 Public Theology in an Age of World Christianity Paul S. Chung, 2010-04-15 This book aims to rearticulate and reinterpret a Christian concept of God s mission and evangelization in light of the universal irregular and transversal horizon of God s narrative as it pertains to the realities of public sphere Paul Chung maintains that mission serves the Word of God which is revealed in Jesus Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit for all It is salient to develop a theology of Trinitarian mission through the perspective of God s living word event in a hermeneutical intercultural fashion Here a Trinitarian concept of missio Dei is deepened and refurbished in light of God as the Subject of speaking through Israel the church and the face of innocent victims and religious outsiders This perspective contextualizes and widens the mission of God s narrative and deepens its universality in light of the word event Human Rights in Cultural and Religious Traditions Alf Tergel, 1998 Towards a Story of the Earth

Denis Carroll,1987 When Theology Listens to the Poor Leonardo Boff,1988 America in Theological Perspective College Theology Society,1976 A Crossroad book All essays were with two exceptions delivered at the 1975 convention of the College Theology Society at Boston College Includes bibliographical references The Option for the Poor in Christian Theology Daniel G. Groody,2007 Drawing on the thoughts of leading international scholars this text explores how the Christian tradition can help us understand the theological foundations for the option of the poor The focus of the book revolves around the question How can one live a Christian life in a world of destitution Studies in Sacred Theology ,1983
