Poverty And Undernutrition Theory Measurement And Policy:

Poverty and Undernutrition Peter Svedberg, 2000-10-05 A large share of the population in many developing countries suffer from chronic undernutrition In this book Professor Svedberg provides a detailed comparative study of undernutrition in Sub Saharan Africa and South Asia the two worst affected areas and provides crucial advice for all those concerned in development worldwide The book concentrates on the five challenges that undernutrition creates what undernutrition is who the undernourished are where the undernourished are when people are undernourished and why people are undernourished The book is divided into five parts Part I introduces the main paradigms and controversies of undernutrition Part II deals with the relationship in the individual between calorie intake expenditure work effort body weight and income Part III assesses the method of defining and measuring undernutrition based on estimates of gaps between calorie intake and calorie requirements for households Part IV provides a parallel analysis of the main alternative approach to defining and measuring undernutrition based on anthropometric assessment mainly of young children but also adolescents and adults Part V analyses the consequences and causes of anthropometric failure as well as the related policy issues Poverty and Undernutrition

Peter Svedberg, 2000 According to research almost one billion people suffer from undernutrition in developing countries This book provides a detailed study of undernutrition in Sub Saharan Africa one of the worst affected areas Inside Poverty and Development in Africa Marcel Rutten, André Leliveld, Dick Foeken, 2008-10-15 When discussing development issues in Africa it is not sufficient to simply stress the ubiquity of failure malnutrition disease predatory states and war one also has to recognize that important aspects in the lives of millions of ordinary people have been transformed over the last five decades The contributions in this book are rooted in extensive empirical research at local regional and or national level in different African countries Chad Ethiopia Kenya Lesotho South Africa and Uganda while some take a pan African view All however offer insight from different analytical perspectives into the heterogeneity of poverty and development processes in Sub Saharan Africa and confront the ideas concepts and assumptions that lie behind pro poor policies The volume also encourages policy makers to choose realistic policy prescriptions in an attempt to move people out of poverty Food

 Exploring this troubling paradox The Feeding of Nations Re Defining Food Security for the 21st Century offers a glimpse into how the simple aspiration of global food security has evolved and unfolded with sometimes contradictory and counterproductive policies agendas and ideologies Providing a holistic analysis of the issues surrounding food security this volume engages in a cross disciplinary approach that makes the subject accessible to readers and academically rigorous in delivery Topics discussed include A brief overview of our current understanding of the prevalence of hunger and malnutrition Historical perspectives on the feeding of nations to understand how we arrived at this point Contemporary motivations that led to the creation of the modern concept of food security The many different sectors related to food security including agriculture environment and policy The goals that society has set regarding food security the means by which these are to be achieved and current thoughts on solutions The book contains a broad set of appendices that enable focused study on critical topics presented in the text Uniquely amalgamating all the disparate elements of food security into one volume it sets the
