Pow Tears That Never Dry:

Inside the Bataan Death March Kevin C. Murphy, 2014-09-24 For two weeks during the spring of 1942 the Bataan Death March one of the most widely condemned atrocities of World War II unfolded The prevailing interpretation of this event is simple American prisoners of war suffered cruel treatment at the hands of their Japanese captors while Filipinos sympathetic to the Americans looked on Most survivors of the march wrote about their experiences decades after the war and a number of factors distorted their accounts The crucial aspect of memory is central to this study how it is constructed by whom and for what purpose This book questions the prevailing interpretation reconsiders the actions of all three groups in their cultural contexts and suggests a far greater complexity Among the conclusions is that violence on the march was largely the result of a clash of cultures undisciplined individualistic Americans encountered Japanese who valued order and form while Filipinos were active even ambitious participants in the drama Philippine-American Military History, 1902-1942 Richard B. Meixsel, 2015-10-02 Military obligations rested lightly upon the Filipino people for much of the period that America occupied the Philippines but Filipinos could enlist in the United States Army and Navy attend the service academies at West Point and Annapolis or join military organizations restricted to duty in the islands such as the Philippine Scouts Philippine Constabulary Philippine National Guard and the navy's insular force In the 1930s the Philippine government established its own armed forces Throughout much of this time the U S army also kept a substantial portion of its troop strength in the Philippines This annotated bibliography of nearly 700 titles highlights the extent and variety of the Philippine American military experience from the conquest of the islands by the United States in 1902 to the defeat of Philippine and American forces by the Japanese in 1942 The bibliography includes memoirs and biographies of Filipino and American officers and enlisted men from MacArthur to Ferdinand Marcos unit histories army post and navy base histories medals and insignia books and the most extensive list of prisoner of war memoirs yet published Annotations address controversies such as the widely disparate estimates of American deaths on the Bataan Death March and include previously unpublished information such as casualty figures for American and Philippine forces in 1941 1942 The Power of Surrender Michael Catt, 2010-02 Michael Catt senior pastor of Sherwood Baptist Church and executive producer of hit films Facing the Giants and Fireproof believes the word revival has been used in so many ways as to lose its meaning altogether The Power of Surrender his third book in the ReFRESH series after The Power of Desperation and The Power of Persistence reminds the church that revival really means 1 focusing on confession and cleansing 2 making repentance and restoration a priority and 3 walking in the fullness of the Holy Spirit and abiding in Christ Surrender is the key to revival which is the key to spreading the gospel Catt has witnessed the fruits of these disciplines at his congregation firsthand We are now seeing people walk through the baptismal waters People are being saved Members are inviting their lost friends and unchurched neighbors Attendance shot up Why Revival produces evangelism Pisgah Views; Or the Negative Aspects of Heaven
