Powderburns Cocaine Contras And The Drug War:

Powderburns Celerino Castillo, Dave Harmon, 1994 The truth about the remaining dark secret of the Iran Contra scandal the United States government's collaboration with drug smugglers Powderburns is the story of Celerino Castillo III who spent 12 years in the Drug Enforcement Administration During that time he built cases against organized drug rings in Manhattan raided jungle cocaine labs in the Amazon conducted aerial eradication operations in Guatemala and assembled and trained anti narcotics units in several countries The eerie climax of Agent Castillo's career with the DEA took place in El Salvador One day he recieved a cable from a fellow agent He was told to investigate possible drug smuggling by Nicaraguan Contras operating from the ilpango air force base Castillo quickly discovered that Contra pilots were indeed smuggling narcotics back into the United States using the same pilots planes and hangars that the Central Intelligence Agency and the National Security Council under the Direction of Lt Col Oliver North used to maintain their covert supply operation to the Contras Powderburns Celerino Castillo, 3rd, Celerino Castillo, III, Dave Harmon, 1995-01-01 Cocaine, Death Squads, and the War on Terror Oliver Villar, Drew Cottle, 2011-11 Since the late 1990s the United States has funneled billions of dollars in aid to Colombia ostensibly to combat the illicit drug trade and State Department designated terrorist groups The result has been a spiral of violence that continues to take lives and destabilize Colombian society This book asks an obvious question are the official reasons given for the wars on drugs and terror in Colombia plausible or are there other deeper factors at work Scholars Villar and Cottle suggest that the answers lie in a close examination of the cocaine trade particularly its class dimensions. Their analysis reveals that this trade has fueled extensive economic growth and led to the development of a narco state under the control of a narco bourgeoisie which is not interested in eradicating cocaine but in gaining a monopoly over its production The principal target of this effort is the Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia FARC who challenge that monopoly as well as the very existence of the Colombian state Meanwhile U S business interests likewise gain from the cocaine trade and seek to maintain a dominant imperialist relationship with their most important client state in Latin America Suffering the brutal consequences as always are the peasants and workers of Colombia This revelatory book punctures the official propaganda and shows the class war underpinning the politics of the Colombian cocaine trade

The Governance of Policing and Security Bob Hoogenboom, 2010-02-12 This book explores policing regulation private security and intelligence to understand current transformations in policing Policing today can no longer be understood only in terms of an organization the police but more and more in terms of multi agency processes. This could be functional for national security interests safety and security but detrimental to accountability and the democratic process Bob Hoogenboom discusses notions of blurring of boundaries unbounding and hybridity and pays homage to and critiques leading thinkers in the field Hoogenboom argues that police studies and criminology are too fragmented and focused on the criminal justice system and not oriented enough towards undertows in policing and security Drawing from not only a wealth of academic sources but also literature and popular culture this book unpicks what these new forms of security mean for governance Book Tacket Derailing Democracy David McGowan, 2000 Is the U S a beacon of progress That s how the mainstream media want you to see it But in Derailing Democracy The America the Media Don t Want You to See David McGowan has compiled an index of disturbing facts that point to ominous trends Did you know We re number one the United States has the highest number of death row inmates of any country on Earth 3 300 That the U S is one of only two countries to defy an International Court ruling over Nicaragua 1986 the other one is Iran That only a handful of countries opposed a 1998 UN Commission on Human Rights call for a moratorium on all executions Bangladesh China South Korea Rwanda and the United States That 133 nations including virtually all U S allies have signed a treaty banning landmines but the U S insists on continued production That in 1996 the list of the top ten richest people in the world contained two Americans who held 28% of the wealth on the list by 1999 they numbered seven out of ten with 84% of the wealth Since the early 1990s more than 60 people in the USA are reported to have died in police custody after being exposed to pepper spray That the U S is selling surveillance equipment to countries with the worst human rights records so that they can track dissidents in an international tracking
