Power And Intimacy In The Christian Philippines:

Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines Fenella Cannell, 1999-03-18 What kind of reciprocity exists between unequal partners How can a culture which makes no attempt to defend unchanging traditions be understood as such In the Christian Philippines inequalities global and local are negotiated through idioms of persuasion reluctance and pity Fenella Cannell's study suggests that these are the idioms of a culture which does not need to represent itself as immutable Her account of Philippine spirit mediumship Catholicism transvestite beauty contests and marriage in Bicol calls for a reassessment of our understanding of South East Asian modernity Combining a strong theoretical interest in the anthropology of religion with a broader comparative attention to recent developments in South East Asian studies she offers a powerful alternative to existing interpretations of the relationship between culture and tradition in the region and beyond This book addresses not only South East Asianists but all those with an interest in the anthropology of religion and post colonial cultures Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines has won the Harry J Benda prize for 2001

Power and Intimacy in the Christian Philippines Fenella Cannell, 1999 Intimate Encounters Lieba Faier, 2009 Lieba Faier investigates the processes by which Filipina women who emigrated to work in rural Japan in hostess bars have overcome initial hostilities to become regarded as ideal traditional Japanese brides Intimate Encounters shows how changes to culture identity come about through ordinary interpersonal exchanges

Intimate Inequalities Ella Parry-Davies, 2025-09-15 Mobilizing performance to amplify migrant domestic workers creative expertise Intimate inequalities exist where the embodied and the everyday rub up against transnational structures of power Ella Parry Davies conducted collaborative research with migrant domestic workers from the Philippines living in the UK and Lebanon where migration is regulated by employer sponsorship systems to explore how they negotiate the intimacy of the family home and the attendant inequalities of laboring within it Intimate Inequalities Performing Migrant Domestic Work brings these conditions into focus while articulating a methodological inquiry into the dynamics of collaborative performance research Parry Davies examines site specific soundwalks recorded and coedited with domestic workers which steer the book between church choirs in Beirut and activist gatherings in London and from urban performances in Lebanon's 2019 revolution to mutual aid organizing amid COVID 19 in the UK Breaking with prevalent depictions of migrant domestic workers as voiceless and victimized Intimate Inequalities mobilizes performance as both an analytic lens and a practical methodology amplifying its subjects expertise while reckoning with the intimate yet unequal dynamics of research itself

Filipino Time Allan Punzalan Isaac, 2021-11-02 From spectacular deaths in a drag musical to competing futures in a call center Filipino Time examines how contracted service labor performed by Filipinos in the Philippines Europe the Middle East and the United States generates vital affects multiple networks and other lifeworlds as much as it disrupts and dislocates human relations Affective labor and time are re articulated in a capacious archive of storytelling about the Filipino labor diaspora in fiction musical performance ethnography and documentary film Exploring these cultural practices Filipino Time traces other ways of sensing making sense of and feeling time with others by weaving narratives of place and belonging out of the hostile but habitable textures of labortime Migrant subjects harness time and the imagination in their creative life making capacities to make communal worlds out of one steeped in the temporalities and logics of capital Choreographing in Color J. Lorenzo Perillo, 2020-08-24 In Choreographing in Color J Lorenzo Perillo draws on nearly two decades of ethnography choreographic analysis and community engagement to ask what does it mean for Filipinos to navigate violent forces of empire and neoliberalism with street dance and Hip Hop Philippine Society and the Individual Frank Lynch, 2004 Includes many papers that have become classics in Philippine sociology and anthropology The Philippines-Japan Relationship in an Evolving Paradigm ,2006 The Queer Turn in Feminism Anne Emmanuelle Berger, 2013-12-02 More than any other area of late twentieth century thinking gender theory and its avatars have been to a large extent a Franco American invention In this book a leading Franco American scholar traces differences and intersections in the development of gender and queer theories on both sides of the Atlantic Looking at these theories through lenses that are both American and French thus simultaneously retrospective and anticipatory she tries to account for their alleged exhaustion and currency on the two sides of the Atlantic The book is divided into four parts In the first the author examines two specifically American features of gender theories since their earliest formulations on the one hand an emphasis on the theatricality of gender from John Money s early characterization of gender as role playing to Judith Butler s appropriation of Esther Newton s work on drag queens on the other the early adoption of a queer perspective on gender issues In the second part the author reflects on a shift in the rhetoric concerning sexual minorities and politics that is prevalent today Noting a shift from efforts by oppressed or marginalized segments of the population to make themselves heard to an emphasis on rendering themselves visible she demonstrates the formative role of the American civil rights movement in this new drive to visibility The third part deals with the travels back and forth across the Atlantic of sexual difference ever since its elevation to the status of quasi concept by psychoanalysis Tracing the queering of sexual difference the author reflects on both the modalities and the effects of this development The last section addresses the vexing relationship between Western feminism and capitalism Without trying either to commend or to decry this relationship the author shows its long lasting political and cultural effects on current feminist and postfeminist struggles and discourses To that end she focuses on one of the intense debates within feminist and postfeminist circles the controversy over prostitution The Anthropology of Christianity Fenella Cannell, 2006-11-07 Ethnographies exploring the vastly different ways that Christianity is experienced and understood by different groups around the world Zeitschrift für Ethnologie ,2005 "Ein guter Mann ist harte Arbeit" Andrea Lauser, 2004 Moussons ,2003 Passion/Pasyon Peter Bräunlein, 2010 Selbstgei elungen und Selbstkreuzigungen f r den westlichen Blick ebenso spektakul r wie erschreckend sind feste Bestandteile sterlicher Passionsbr uche auf den Philippinen Allj hrlich str men
