Hess,E. A. Martens,2008 In February 2004 Denver Seminary's annual Biblical Studies conference addressed the question of modern war and the teachings of biblical ethics regarding it A year earlier the invasion of Iraq had taken place The questions created by the outbreak of war prompted an urgency in the consideration of the topic Association for Christian Conferences Teaching and Service ACCTS provided ethicists and practitioners from within the military of both the U S and Great Britain Hess and Martens also solicited papers from leading theologians and advocates representing pacifist and just war views They have succeeded in bringing together a group of Christians representing a wide range of perspectives to debate and discuss their heritage and biblical roots with regard to questions of war and its ethical dilemmas from publisher description International Handbook of Ecumenical Diakonia Godwin Ampony,Martin Büscher,Beate Hofmann,2021-08-10 This book was developed to join key resources on biblical theological foundations regional and confessional expressions new themes trends educational approaches and curriculum models for diakonia and Christian social services which can enrich current training courses and widen the horizon by inter contextual and inter cultural perspectives Becoming the Gospel Michael J. Gorman, 2015-05-06 The first detailed exegetical treatment of Paul's letters from the emerging discipline of missional hermeneutics Michael Gorman's Becoming the Gospel argues that Paul's letters invite Christian communities both then and now to not merely believe the gospel but to become the gospel and in doing so to participate in the life and mission of God Showing that Pauline churches were active public participants in and witnesses to the gospel Gorman reveals the missional significance of various themes in Paul's letters He also identifies select contemporary examples of mission in the spirit of Paul inviting all Christians to practice Paul inspired imagination in their own contexts Love in a Cauldron of Misery Kirk Blackard, 2012-09-27 Christians are called to minister to people in prison But most know next to nothing about prisons the needs of the people in them or the biblical basis for addressing those needs Love in a Cauldron of Misery fills that void This book provides a brief historical perspective that orients the reader and a discussion mainly in the words of people with real experience of what prisons and prisoners are really like and why the need for ministry is so great It then explores the biblical charge for Christians to meet these needs and discusses ways in which they can do so Love in a Cauldron of Misery is an invaluable resource for any pastor teacher or lay person who is participating in considering or just wants to know more about prison ministry ThirdWay , 1989-08 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture
