Shame And Pride Affect Sex And The Birth Of The Self:

Shame and Pride Donald L. Nathanson, 1994 This is a revolutionary book about the nature of emotion about the way emotions are triggered in our private moments in our relations with others and by our biology Drawing on every theme of the modern life sciences Dr Nathanson shows how the nine basic affects interest excitement enjoyment joy surprise startle fear terror distress anguish anger rage disgust and shame humiliation not only determine how we feel but shape our very sense of self For too long there has been a battle between those who explain emotional discomfort on the basis of lived experience and those who blame chemistry As Dr Nathanson shows chemicals and illnesses can affect our mood just as surely as an uncomfortable memory or a stern rebuke He presents a completely new understanding of all emotion providing the first link between the exciting affect theory of Silvan Tomkins and the entire world of biology medicine psychology psychotherapy religion and the social sciences Shame is the least understood of the painful emotions although it affects every phase of life We have all been made to feel foolish just at the moment we most wanted to appear wonderful we have all been rebuffed by those we wished to court Not one of us looks exactly as we might wish Shame haunts our every dream of love and influences how we experience ourselves as sexual beings We react to shame by withdrawing by making painful alliances with those who humiliate us by calling attention to what brings us pride or by attacking whoever has made us feel inferior The comedian as Nathanson shows in his discussion of Buddy Hackett makes us laugh at what we try to keep hidden transforming shame into acceptance and even pride This book explains everything that can possibly make us proud or ashamed All are in this book nobody who reads it will be quite the same again The Corsini Encyclopedia of Psychology, Volume 4 Irving

Emotional Safety Don R. Catherall, 2006-11-06 Emotional Safety is designed to help couple therapists identify and conceptualize the problems of their clients and to provide solutions focusing on the two central elements of emotion and attachment Problems occur in relationships when the partners no longer feel safe being open and vulnerable with each other Emotional Safety Viewing Couples Through the Lens of Affect enables couple therapists to recognize and articulate the emotional subtext of their clients interactions The emotional safety model is based on modern affect theory and focuses on the affective tone of messages in the areas of attachment and esteem The model allows therapists to address the subtle interplay of perceived threat and emotional reaction which underlies their clients difficulties and disrupts emotional safety

Puschkin Menno Aden, 2000 The Human as the Other Matthew Rukgaber, 2025-02-20 Philosophical anthropology investigates what makes us human but it has produced accounts that exclude some members of our species It relies often on non naturalistic philosophies of consciousness that locate humanity in the cognitive capacity to objectively represent things to reason teleologically and use tools to use symbols and language or to be self conscious and question existence This work pursues an alternative thoroughly naturalistic philosophical anthropology by combining Arnold Gehlen s theory of our behaviorally detached and institutionally structured impulses with Maurice Merleau Ponty s views on intersubjectivity affect sexuality and social institutions It locates the human within the unique structure of our capacity for feeling which produces an inclusive account of the human as the other or Homo alter Humans are deeply and thoroughly dependent on affective bodily communicative bonds in which other humans appear as sources of pleasure communicative meaning institutional norms and interpersonal approbation and disapprobation However this socio biological account of the human denies that human nature alone can prescribe the necessary form of institutions such as the home which is a criticism of any potential political anthropology A result of this focus on our social and affective natures is a novel account of shame as a response to institutional and interpersonal exclusion Failing to recognize humanity within our dependency on others and the structure of feeling is a widespread problem in philosophy and society in general that contributes to the social and metaphysical exclusion of disabled persons who might lack certain forms of consciousness and cognition Reimagining philosophical anthropology as the study of the unique way that human beings are socially present to one another this work challenges such dehumanization

Komorowska,2017 English summary Given the complaints in newspaper arts and culture supplements about the shamelessness of contemporary literature the feeling of shame could be considered an outdated phenomenon However this study argues that in the light of the retour du recit in French literature since the 1970s a strand of literary narrative has formed in which shame has become a magnifying glass through which we can observe contemporary upheavals This occurs on the one hand when we reconnect with changes within literature and on the other in connection with historical events in which the subject finds himself confronted with a specific form of postmodern shame This includes the legacy of the Shoah colonial history and the humiliations of late capitalist life The narratives of Marguerite Duras Georges Arthur Goldschmidt and Annie Ernaux are studied here on the basis of the term hontofiction The subject which was laid to rest by the nouveau roman amongst other things does not return as an autonomous subject but instead reflects its own fragility through the nature of its return German description Das Gefuhl der Scham mag angesichts feuilletonistischer Beschwerden uber die Schamlosigkeit der zeitgenossischen Literatur als uberholtes Phanomen gelten Die Studie argumentiert hingegen dass sich im Rahmen des retour du recit in der franzosischen Literatur seit den 1970er Jahren ein Strang literarischen Erzählens ausbildet in dem die Scham zum Brennglas fur zeitgenossische Umbruche wird Dies geschieht zum einen in Ruckbindung an innerliterarische Veranderungen zum anderen in Bezug auf historische Ereignisse in denen das Subjekt sich mit einer

Napoleon Against Himself Avner Falk,2007 A psychological biography of the French emperor examines Napoleon s family background infancy childhood adolescence adulthood and death and offers new explanations for his numerous irrational self defeating and self destructive actions The Journal of Psychohistory ,2006 Masochism Jaromír Janata,2001 The French Philosopher and political theorist Jean Jacques Rousseau has been remembered as one of the most eloquent writers of the Age of Enlightenment His treatises inspired the leaders of the French Revolution and his exaltation of the natural world had a profound impact on the popular culture of the day giving rise to the Romantic generation Yet there was a dark side to Rousseau s character and in this intimate and absorbing account of his life author Jaromir Janata sheds light on the psychological disorder that was a driving force behind his radical ideologies Through the examination of Rousseau s life from a modern psychoanalytical perspective it has been deemed that Rousseau was a sexual masochist In this thorough biography of his life Dr Janata further reveals that Rosseau was also a moral masochist thriving on the heated public furor caused by his revolutionary concepts of society Masochism takes a two prong approach to illuminating the life of this extraordinary man First we come to recognize Rousseau s contributions to the Humanities through a fascinating chronicle of his life and times Then Dr Janata draws an intricately detailed psychological portrait from a clinical viewpoint By studying this colorful sensualist we find a profound message in Rousseau s life Through understanding the deepest meanings of his psychic disturbance we gain important insights that can be applied to the psychological maladies of contemporary society
