

The background of the book cover is a light beige color. It is decorated with numerous thin, dark diagonal lines that run from the top-left towards the bottom-right. Scattered across this background are several short, thick rectangular bars in three colors: dark blue, teal, and magenta. These bars are oriented diagonally, matching the lines. The title 'Shaping Prose' is centered in the lower half of the cover in a large, elegant, magenta-colored serif font.

Shaping Prose:

Higher-grade English [by W.S. Dalgleish]. By W.S. Dalgleish Walter Scott Dalgleish, 1896 ENGLISH LITERATURE ADVANCING THROUGH HISTORY 4 - The Eighteenth Century Petru Golban, 2022-12-28 It appears that literary work possesses eternal temporal validity due to its autonomous aesthetic value whereas criticism provides points of view having temporary and transitory significance. Despite such claims the vector of methodology in our series of books dealing with the history of English literature relies on Viktor Shklovsky, T. S. Eliot, Mikhail Bakhtin and especially Yuri Tynyanov whose main reasoning would be that literature is a system of dominant central and peripheral marginalized elements to us tradition centre versus innovation margin engaged in a battle for supremacy, demarginalization and the right to form a new literary system and the development or historical advancement of literature is the substitution of systems. Roman Jakobson and French structuralism on the whole later Linda Hutcheon with her system and constant and Bran Nicol with the dominant to say nothing about Itamar Even-Zohar and his theory of polysystem to a certain extent Julia Kristeva and even Homi Bhabha as well as our humble contribution we would like to believe maintain Tynyanov's line of thinking and concepts alive which have developed and emerged nowadays more like a kind of neo-formalism. Focusing on literary practice applying critical theory and emerging from within our own teaching experience the books in the present series are theoretical and surveyistic like a monograph whereas their more practical and text-oriented aspect should appeal as a student handbook for didactic purposes in which certain literary works belonging to various writers of different trends, movements and periods are analysed and compared with regard to their source, form, thematic arrangements, ideas, motifs, character representation strategies, intertextual perspectives, structural or narrative techniques and other aspects.

ENGLISH LITERATURE ADVANCING THROUGH HISTORY 3 - The Seventeenth Century Petru Golban, 2021-12-24 The present book is third in a series of works which aim to expose the complexity and essence, power and extent of the major periods, movements, trends, genres, authors and literary texts in the history of English literature. Following this aim the series will consist of monographs which cover the most important ages and experiences of English literary history including Anglo-Saxon or Old English period, the Middle Ages, the Renaissance, the Restoration, neoclassicism, romanticism, Victorian Age and the twentieth century and contemporary literary backgrounds. The reader of these volumes will acquire the knowledge of literary terminology along with the theoretical and critical perspectives on certain texts and textual typology belonging to different periods, movements, trends and genres. The reader will also learn about the characteristics and conventions of these literary periods and movements, trends and genres, main writers and major works and the literary interaction and continuity of the given periods. Apart from an important amount of reference to literary practice some chapters on these periods include information on their philosophy, criticism, worldview, values or episteme in the Foucauldian sense which means that even though the condition of the creative writing remains as the main concern it is balanced by a focus on the condition of thought as well as theoretical and critical writing during a particular period Preface boom political conservatism cultural complexity Haomin Gong s dynamic study of these paradoxes or unevenness provides a unique and seminal approach to contemporary China Reading unevenness as a problem and an opportunity simultaneously Gong investigates how this dialectical social situation shapes cultural production He begins his investigation of uneven modernity in China by constructing a critical framework of unevenness among different theoretical schools and expounding on how dialectical thinking points to a metaphysical paradox in capitalism and modernity the inevitable tension between a constant pursuit of infinite fullness and a break of fullness unevenness as the means of this pursuit In the Chinese context this paradox is created in the uneven developmentalism that most manifestly characterizes the postsocialist period Gong goes on to investigate manifestations of the dialectics of unevenness in specific cultural events Four case studies address respectively but not exclusively literature the prose of Yu Qiuyu popular fiction Chi Li s neorealist fiction commercial cinema the movies of Feng Xiaogang and art house cinema Wang Xiaoshuai s filmmaking Representing different aspects of cultural production in postsocialist China these writers and directors deal with the same social condition of uneven development and their works clearly exhibit the problematics of this age Uneven Modernity makes a significant contribution to the burgeoning field of China studies as well as the study of uneven development in general It addresses some of the most popular yet understudied cultural phenomena in contemporary China Specialists and students will find its insights admirable and its style accessible
