Sharing Biblical Dialogues:

African and European Readers of the Bible in Dialogue Gerald West, Hans (J.H) de Wit, 2008-07-31 Far too long the relationship between European and African biblical scholarship has been a non relationship Divergent insights into how biblical texts should be interpreted and made fruitful for the current context cultural differences colonial past and post colonial future radically different social situations this all made companionship and real interaction difficult This rich and multilayered volume result of a Stellenbosch conference 2006 attempts to disclose new modes of dialogue between readers of the Bible from those two worlds More than twenty theologians from Africa and Europe reflect together on how readers from radically different contexts professional and ordinary alike may become allies in an ethically accountable way of relating the biblical text to their current global situations and how a process of mutual learning may be established This book provides important insights in intercultural hermeneutics the relationship between classical historico literary approaches and new forms of interpretation It also gives examples of new forms of how to read the Bible in the secularised European context and the HIV Aids stricken Africa Particularly enriching is that every contribution is followed by a personal letter of response of another contributor to the book giving impulses for further dialogue and debate The book is useful for all biblical scholars and students in particular for those interested in how to do contextual exegesis in a manner that also takes into account the context of the other

Gospel Conversations Robert W. Kellemen, 2015-09-01 How does a person learn to counsel others with the truth of God s Word Bob Kellemen believes that the best way to learn counseling is by doing it by giving and receiving biblical counseling in the context of real raw Christian community Gospel Conversations explores the four compass points of biblical counseling Sustaining It s Normal to Hurt Healing It s Possible to Hope Reconciling It s Horrible to Sin but Wonderful to Be Forgiven Guiding It s Supernatural to Mature These four compass points combine to equip readers to develop twenty two ministry relational competencies the how to of caring like Christ This book serves as a practical training manual that can be used for lab and small group interaction Gospel Conversations is the second volume in The Equipping Biblical Counselors Series a comprehensive relational training curriculum for the local church that provides a model for equipping God s people to change lives with Christ s changeless truth This two volume series weaves together comprehensive biblical insight with compassionate Christian engagement
