Sharps Firearms:

Federal Firearms Regulations Reference Guide, 2005 The Sharps Rifle Winston Oliver Smith, 1943 Firearms of the American West, 1866-1894 Louis A. Garavaglia, Charles G. Worman, 1997 This is the second volume of a two part encyclopedic reference to firearms in the 19th century American West offering both technical information and historical narrative Covering the period from the close of the Civil War to the modern period it draws on advertisements from newspapers catalogues and other primary sources to discuss the military and civilian firearms used in the settling of the West including rifles shotguns and handguns as well as the guns used by the Native Americans Illustrated with some 500 photographs of the weapons and of the people who used them Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Federal Firearms Regulations Reference Guide John W. Magaw, 1996-04 Your Guide to Federal Firearms Regulation, 1995 Firearms of the American West, 1803-1865 Louis A. Garavaglia, Charles G. Worman, 1998 In 1803 Lewis and Clark set out on their epic expedition across the American wilderness west of the Mississippi armed with the typical weapon of their day the single shot muzzle loading rifle By 1865 a variety of breech loading and repeating arms had been invented there were both easier to use and more accurate This encyclopaedic study part one of a two part book traces the development and uses of firearms on the frontier during that period drawing on primary sources such as correspondence and diaries newspaper accounts government reports and patent materials Then as now most of the advances in weaponry were made in response to the military's needs becoming available somewhat later to civilians and then to Indians The authors thoroughly cover the refinements and adaptations of weapons for employ by these three groups and by explorers and trappers describing in detail each gun its modifications operations and uses In many ways the history of firearms on the frontier parallels the history of the development of the West Official Catalogue United States Centennial Commission, 1876 American Firearms Makers Arthur Merwyn Carey, 1953 American Firearms Makers is without question the most complete reference work of its kind in print It is a cyclopedia of firearms makers of both long and short arms custom made and arms made under federal and state government contracts It covers the period from the Colonial era to the end of the nineteenth century American Firearms Makers contains more than 2100 entries arranged in alphabetical order from Andrew Agnew to John Zuendorff All the great makers such as Colt Derringer Drepperd Pomeroy Whitney etc have considerable material to cover a complete summary of their activities and their place in American firearms history not to mention the hundreds and hundreds of other makers whose names may be puzzling to collectors Each entry will tell you the correct spelling of the maker's name the span of years he was active the town or city and state in which he was located and the type of arms he produced The data are intentionally concise but where it is appropriate other information is abundantly supplied patent dates descriptive markings calibers and dimensions of the arms etc Other books have covered sections of the country and limited periods of the subject's history This is the first book covering the entire United States during the flintlock

percussion and metallic cartridge cycles of arms The material in American Firearms Makers represents thirty three years of collecting researching and inspecting old firearms both in the United States and abroad The author has one of the best reference libraries in this field This volume has been awaited by collectors antique dealers libraries and museums American Firearms Makers is illustrated with authentic contemporary pictures together with photographs from the author s collection It contains in addition a chronology and a bibliography Jacket flap Reports and Awards ... Francis A.
