A Scientific and Historical Survey. Edited by David L. Linton British Association for the Advancement of Science, 1956 A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins, American Historical Association, Royal Historical Society (Great Britain), 1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index Guide to Reference Material: Social & historical sciences, philosophy & religion Albert John Walford, Library Association, 1973 Sheffield and its region: a scientific and historical survey, ed British Association for the Advancement of Science. Sheffield Local Executive Committee, David Leslie Linton, Cinemas and Cinema-Going in the United Kingdom: Decades of Decline, 1945-65 Sam Manning, 2020-03-31 Cinema going was the most popular commercial leisure activity in the first half of the twentieth century peaking in 1946 with 1 6 billion recorded admissions Though going to the pictures remained a popular pastime the transition to peacetime altered citizens leisure habits During the 1950s increased affluence the growth of television ownership and the diversification of leisure led to rapid declines in attendance Cinema attendances fell in all regions but the speed nature and extent of decline varied widely across the United Kingdom By linking national developments to detailed case studies of Belfast and Sheffield this book adds nuance to our understanding of regional variations in film exhibition audience habits and cinema going experiences during a period of profound social and cultural change Drawing on a wide range of quantitative and qualitative sources Cinema and Cinema Going conveys the diverse nature of this important industry and the significance of place as a determinant of film attendance in post war Britain Conflict and Compromise Dennis Smith, 2016-06-17 First published in 1982 this study explores the dynamics of class formation during the vital decades between 1830 and 1914 when a rising urban industrial order was developing in complex interdependence with a declining rural agrarian order The book follows the divergent paths of two cities Birmingham and Sheffield in their social development These paths reflect the complex process of conflict and compromise as the old order was gradually replaced by the new It studies in detail many aspects of social life that were affected by these changes such as education public administration political structures public administration religion the professions popular culture and family This book will be of interest to those studying Victorian history and sociology

Political Poetry as Discourse Angela M. Leonard, 2010-01-01 Political Poetry as Discourse examines the works of the political poets John Greenleaf Whittier and Ebenezer Elliott drawing comparisons to contemporary hip hoppers who take their words from local newspapers and other discursive sources that they read hear and observe Local presses and news vehicles stand as cultural material forms that supply poets with words particularly words that congeal into patterns of language allowing the creation of a poetic discourse As readers of these poets apply techniques and theories of discourse analysis they reveal how poets borrow lift hijack or resituate words from one or more different genres to use as tools of political change Leonard engages with the critical toolboxes of content analysis semiosis and deconstruction to demonstrate how to critically investigate and interrogate the images sounds and words not just of politically engaged poets but also of any disseminator of culture and news Moving beyond theory into praxis this book becomes a model of its own transgressive premise by thinking analyzing writing and teaching against the grain Its focus on language as unbounded discourse makes this book a relevant and insightful demonstration in democratic pedagogy and in teaching for transformation
