a group of four of us had a fantastic meal at Guinness on a Saturday evening.

It's a small restaurant, but you never feel crowded in.

The menu is limited, but there should be something for everyone but the fussiest of eaters.

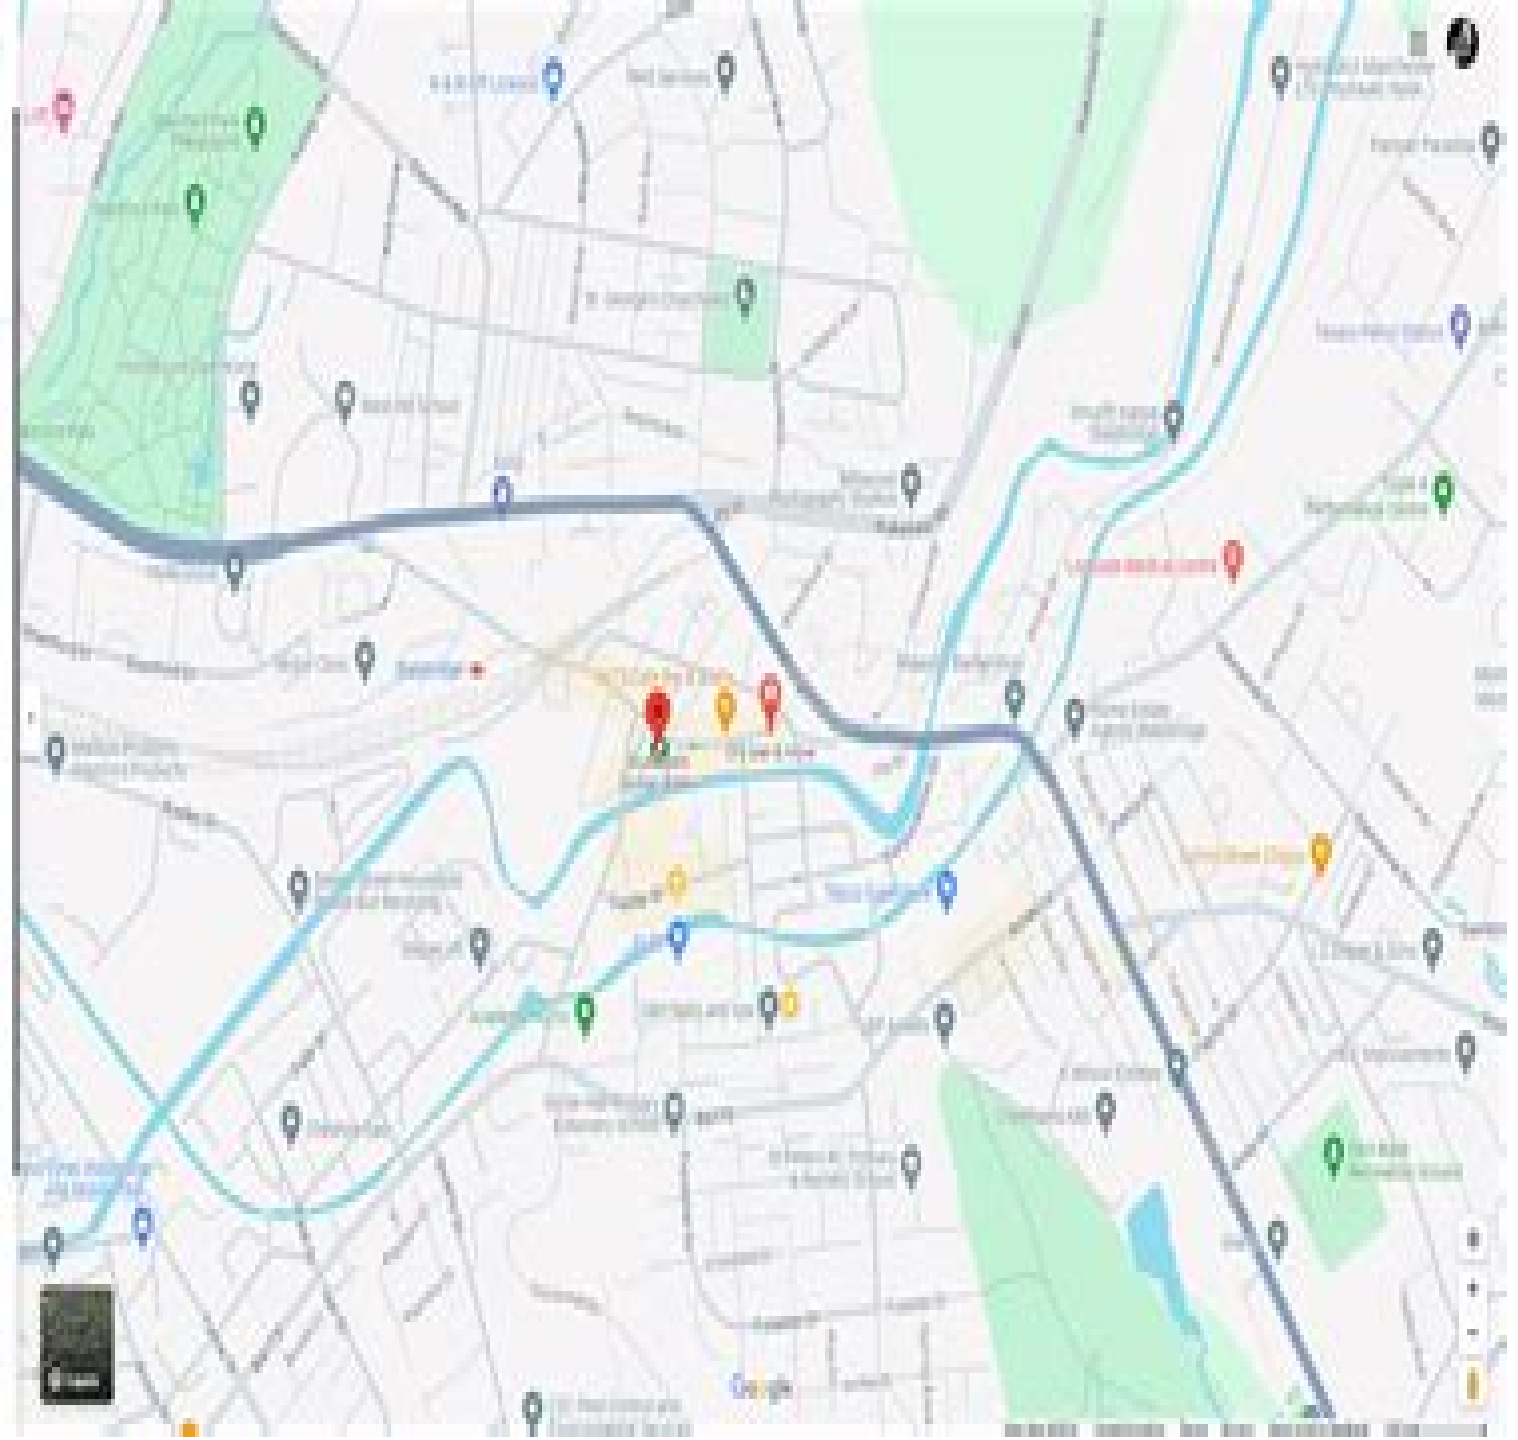

The prices, portions, and service with politeness all excellent.

My one complaint would be the limited time you have the table for (1.5 hours). This is clearly necessary given the small number of tables on offer, but with so many full on four, we would have entered inevitably, and as only doing repeat.

Service Great!!

Meal type
Dinner

Price per person
£20-30
