Students and Online Writing Labs (OWLS) William J. McGraw, 2007 Culture Shock and the Practice of Profession Virginia Anderson, Susan Romano, 2006 Steps into the debate about how doctoral programs should prepare students for the profession

Teaching/writing in the Late Age of Print Jeffrey R. Galin, Carol Peterson Haviland, J. Paul Johnson, 2003 Although several anthologies have collected articles on issues confronting composition studies no other text looks at student writing as does Teaching Writing in the Late Age of Print No other volume has asked compositionists to use student writing to reflect on their teaching practices No other volume has provided the rich breadth of response that reflects the current state of composition in the United States And no other volume has defined its primary task as portraying the diversity of the field through teaching practices as represented in student writing Most important of all no other volume has provided all course materials and supplemental documentation online as an integral part of such a project There is a keyword reference table that allows readers to read chapters based on key terms in the field like collaboration Each chapter begins with an abstract for easy reference The companion website for this book includes a searchable database of all the chapter abstracts assignments excerpts from all contributions extended course materials that help contextualize the printed chapters and an online forum for teachers and researchers to meet and discuss their research interests

Strategies for Successful Writing James A. Reinking, 1993 American Book Publishing Record, 1998 WPA, Writing Program Administration, 1996 The Social Construction of Written Communication Bennetta A. Rafoth, Donald L. Rubin, 1988 This volume examines the role of social factors in the nature and development of written communication Unlike previous works the volume is dedicated to examining the ways in which written communication affects and is affected by the community of writers and readers who produce and interpret written language It focuses on the extent to which writing depends upon principles of social context that are posited for language in general Intended for both researchers and teachers in language composition education and communication the volume draws together a number of distinguished scholars in linguistics communication education anthropology and sociology It offers theoretical and applied perspectives on aspects of written communication that share in the social foundations of language The Cumulative Book Index ,1999 Resources in Education ,1997

The Problem-solving Processes of Writers and Readers Ann S. Rosebery,1990 Self-assessment and Development in Writing Jane Bowman Smith,Kathleen Blake Yancey,2000 This collection explores student self assessment and its role in the development of writing Chapters address both theoretical and practical issues and make connections to extend the work done by teacher evaluation of student writing peer evaluation and in portfolios Approaches to Audience Mary Jo Reiff,2004-06 Current Index to Journals in Education ,2002 The Semiotics of Writing Patrick Coppock,2001 12 col illus Journal of Developmental Education ,2011
