Sexual Rehabilitation of the Spinal-Cord-Injured Patient J. F. J. Leyson, 2013-03-09 G Blasius frSt described the anatomic aspects of spinal cord injury SCI in 1666 Until that time society had totally ignored the physically disabled let alone allowed them to mingle socially and sexually The mortality rate between 1814 1914 was estimated to be 50-80% although sexual and sociocultural implications were not addressed In a 1928 novel Lady Chatterley's Lover D H Lawrence strongly reflected the sexual concerns of a paraplegic who had been labeled impotent The modern management of SCI was initiated by Monroe and Guttman in 1943 but with heavy emphasis on physical and urological rehabilitation and only superficial attention to sexual dysfunctions H W Home et al started the investigation of SCI infertility problems in 1950 It was not until 1960 that Bors and Comarr collaborated on a study that classified the types of sexual dysfunctions in relation to neurological level of lesions following spinal cord trauma Non-disabled sexuality came of age during the past two decades This was highlighted by the 1966 publication of W Masters Human Sexual Response However the topic of sexuality in physically challenged handicapped persons remains largely taboo in our present society There are an estimated 10-12 million SCI persons worldwide In America there are approximately 1.2-1.5 million SCI victims with an annual incidence of 12,000-15,000 or one every 35 minutes The visibility of SCI persons was enhanced when the United Nations declared 1980-1990 as the decade of disabled persons Furthermore the enactment into law in July 1990 of the American Disabilities Act pointed out the handicapped person's right to the fullest pursuit of happiness Since the release in 1974 of K Heslinga's Not Made of V vi Preface Stone only a handful of books on medical sexuality for the disabled have been published This book has three major objectives 1 to provide thorough and comprehensive coverage of disabled persons sexuality in all sexual orientations 2 to introduce new terminology and theories to redefine certain sexual dysfunctions and to describe updated treatment formats and

3 to present research and innovation that may stimulate further investigations into disabled sexuality during the next decade. The first part of this book defines new sexual terminology and describes the full spectrum of sexual challenges. The second half of the book deals with a variety of diagnostic and therapeutic sexual innovations, AIDS implications, and cosmic sexology. Finally, the Appendix lists international sexual referral centers and information organizations.

Encyclopedia of Film Themes, Settings and Series Richard B. Armstrong, Mary Willems Armstrong, 2015-07-11. The first edition was called the most valuable film reference in several years by Library Journal. The new edition, published in hardcover in 2001, includes more than 670 entries. The current work is a paperback reprint of that edition. Each entry contains a mini essay that defines the topic, followed by a chronological list of representative films. From the Abominable Snowman to Zorro, this encyclopedia provides film scholars and fans with an easy-to-use reference for researching film themes or tracking down obscure movies on subjects such as suspended animation, viral epidemics, robots, submarines, reincarnation, ventriloquists, and the Olympics. Excellent, said Cult Movies. The volume also contains an extensive list of film characters and series, including B movie detectives, Western heroes, made-for-television film series, and foreign film heroes and villains.

Making a Home Jen Powley, 2023-05-04T00:00:00Z. In some Canadian provinces, people with severe physical disabilities are simply warehoused in nursing homes where many people, especially in the age of home care, are in the final stages of their lives. It is difficult for a young person to live in a home geared for death; their physical assistance needs are met, but their social, psychological, and emotional needs are not. Jen Powley argues that everyone deserves to live with the dignity of risk. In Making a Home, Powley tells the story of how she got young disabled people like herself out of nursing homes by developing a shared attendant services system for adults with severe physical disabilities. This book makes a case for living in the community and against dehumanizing institutionalization.

Narrative Care: Biopolitics and the Novel Arne De Boever, 2013-03-28. If the September 11 terror attacks opened up an era of crises and exceptions of which we are yet to see the end, it is perhaps not surprising that care has emerged in the early twenty-first century as a key political issue. This book approaches contemporary narratives of care through the lens of a growing body of theoretical writings on biopolitics. Through close readings of J. M. Coetzee's Slow Man, Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go, Paul Auster's The Book of Illusions, and Tom McCarthy's Remainder, it seeks to reframe debates about realism in the novel, ranging from Ian Watt to Zadie Smith, as engagements with the novel's biopolitical origins, its relation to pastoral care, the camps, and the welfare state. Within such an understanding of the novel, what possibilities for a critical aesthetics of existence does the contemporary novel include?

Psychotherapists on Film, 1899-1999 John Flowers, Paul Frizler, 2004 How long have psychotherapists been depicted in films Nearly as long as there have been films or psychotherapists for that matter This isn't surprising if one considers that the Freudian revolution in psychology and the invention of motion pictures occurred at about the same time What may be surprising is the sheer number of times that psychotherapists in their many guises have shown up in the movies and how their depiction has reflected changing social attitudes about psychotherapy over the last century This comprehensive worldwide filmography examines over 5000 movies Films in which mental health professionals appear or in which others act in that capacity are listed alphabetically A preface explains the criteria for a film's inclusion and a lengthy introduction and guide to the filmography explores the changing social attitudes mirrored by the movies Appendices list the titles by decade alternate titles for many films recent releases and qualifying adult films This text refers to Volume 2 of a two volume set Volume 2 includes entries from M through Z the appendices and index The complete set can be obtained under ISBN 0 7864 1297 6

The Celluloid Couch Leslie Y. Rabkin, 1998-10 In this unique filmography Leslie Rabkin delves deeply into film's unconscious producing a valuable reference text concerned with the history of film and its representation of therapy and mental illness The Celluloid Couch is arranged by decade with the exception of the earliest period The Silent Era from the very beginnings of film to 1920 Each period contains a thoughtful introduction that highlights important films and discusses the intersection of film with history and psychology Rabkin's overview lays bare patterns in film's representation of mental illness and therapy and inquires how contemporary stereotypes of psychiatric patients and institutions have been formed from film Textual examples in the introduction are drawn from magazines and newspapers as well as numerous readings of particularly important films refracted through the lens of a psychologist The alphabetical entries are compact and inclusive containing main titles as well as foreign listings and detailed information such as cast length director producer and a brief synopsis of the film's plot and discussion of the forms of therapy depicted and utilized in the film An efficient resource for the student of film psychology or mass culture The Celluloid Couch makes the huge number of popular films that portray mental illness and therapy accessible Saint Sebastian Gerald Matt, Wolfgang Fetz, Kunsthalle Wien, 2003 The cultural historical starting point of Saint Sebastian Or a Splendid Readiness For Death is found in Gabriele D Annunzio s Martyrdom of Saint Sebastian A Mystery in Five Acts a musical play on which D Annunzio collaborated with Debussy and in which the role of Saint Sebastian was taken by D Annunzio s lover the dancer Ida Rubenstein whose transvestism in the role brought denunciations from the Church But that is another story Nevertheless our Saint Sebastian is similarly arranged into five thematic focal points Sebastian as the exemplary sufferer Susan Sontag as multifarious icon of the history of civilization as saint who attracts misfortune upon himself in order to avert it from others as fetish of erotic subcultures and as vamp and dandy whose beauty only blossoms in its full splendor when caught in the throes of excruciating agony A sixth thematic point sneaks in here and Saint Sebastian is brought up to date as the great ecstatician of art history Oh and the art Contemporary artists whose work is explored through the lens of Saint Sebastian include Ron Athey Louise Bourgeois Chris Burden Francesco Clemente Bavo Defurne Kirby Dick Bob Flanagan Cerith Wyn Evans Eikoh Hosoe Derek Jarman Adi Nes Luigi Ontani Catherine Opie Ana Maria Pacheco Pier Paolo Pasolini Paul Schrader Kishin Shinoyama Fiona Tan Wolfgang Tillmans Joel Peter Witkin and David Wojnarowicz Variety's Complete Home Video Directory , 1989
