The Impact of Privatization and Competition in the Telecommunications Sector around the World

Wei Li<sup>1</sup>, Lixin Colin Xu<sup>2</sup>

Abstract: Abstract. Using a comprehensive country-level panel data set covering the period from 1981 to 1998, we examine the impact of privatization and competition in the telecommunications sector around the world. Privatization contributed substantially to labor shedding, output growth, network expansion, and improvements in labor productivity as well as total factor productivity. But how countries privatized is important. Share issue privatization facilitated the development of the mobile market segment. Granting a ... Show more
