Proceedings - Dorset Natural History and Archaeological Society Dorset Natural History and Archaeological Society, 1887
List of members in each volume In Search of a Better Life Graham Davis, 2011-11-08 In Search of a Better Life challenges the traditional histories of British and Irish migration the stories of oppression and exile that form an essential part of the existing literature By no means were all migrants forced to leave their country by circumstances many looked forward to a better life abroad They were largely opportunists rather than victims whether financed by the state or by landlords or philanthropists or as was the case for the majority by themselves or their families This was a huge movement of people that formed part of a European exodus to the New World In placing British and Irish migration alongside each other there is recognition of the commonalities among both sets of emigrants that will surprise many readers The poor condition of labourers in 1840s Dorset and Wiltshire were akin to those found in County Cork during the Famine years British and Irish emigrants were commonly found on the same ships en route to the Americas and Australasia both settling in predominantly English speaking countries With case studies by a variety of contributors set within the broader context of current scholarship this compilation features new research on a popular subject which still resonates today It will prove particularly useful for family historians The Building of Elizabethan and Jacobean England Maurice Howard, 2007 Transformation an introduction Bare ruin d choirs re visited All this new building the urban landscape A language for architecture The role of patrons Representing buildings Bamberger Beiträge zur englischen Sprachwissenschaft , 1992 Hillforts and the Durotriges Dave Stewart, Miles Russell, 2017-11-20 This volume sets out the results of a detailed programme of non intrusive geophysical survey conducted across hillforts of Dorset UK generating detailed subsurface maps of archaeological features in the hope of better resolving the phasing form and internal structure of these iconic sites The Antiquaries Journal , 1981

Badon and the Early Wars for Wessex, circa 500 to 710 David Cooper, 2018-07-30 A thought provoking study of warfare in the Dark Ages in Great Britain and the origins of Wessex David Cooper s book reappraises the evidence regarding the early battles for Wessex territory It charts the sequence of battles from the c AD 500 siege of Badon Hill in which the Britons defeated the first Saxon attempt to gain a foothold in Wessex territory to Langport in 710 which consolidated King Ine s position and pushed the Britons westwards Discussion of the post Roman British and Germanic factions provides context and background to Badon Hill which is then covered in detail and disentangled from Arthurian legend In considering how the opposing commanders are likely to have planned their campaigns enduring principles of military doctrine and tactics are discussed using examples from other periods to illustrate how these principles applied in Dark Ages Britain Going on to follow subsequent campaigns of the West Saxons in southern Britain a credible assessment is made of how these resulted in the establishment of a viable Wessex kingdom two centuries after Badon Grounded in the latest academic and archaeological evidence David Cooper offers a number of new insights and ideas William Barnes, 1801-1886, the Schoolmaster
