a group of four of us had a fantastic meal at Guinness on a Saturday evening.

It's a small restaurant, but you never feel crowded in.

The menu is limited, but there should be something for everyone but the fussiest of eaters.

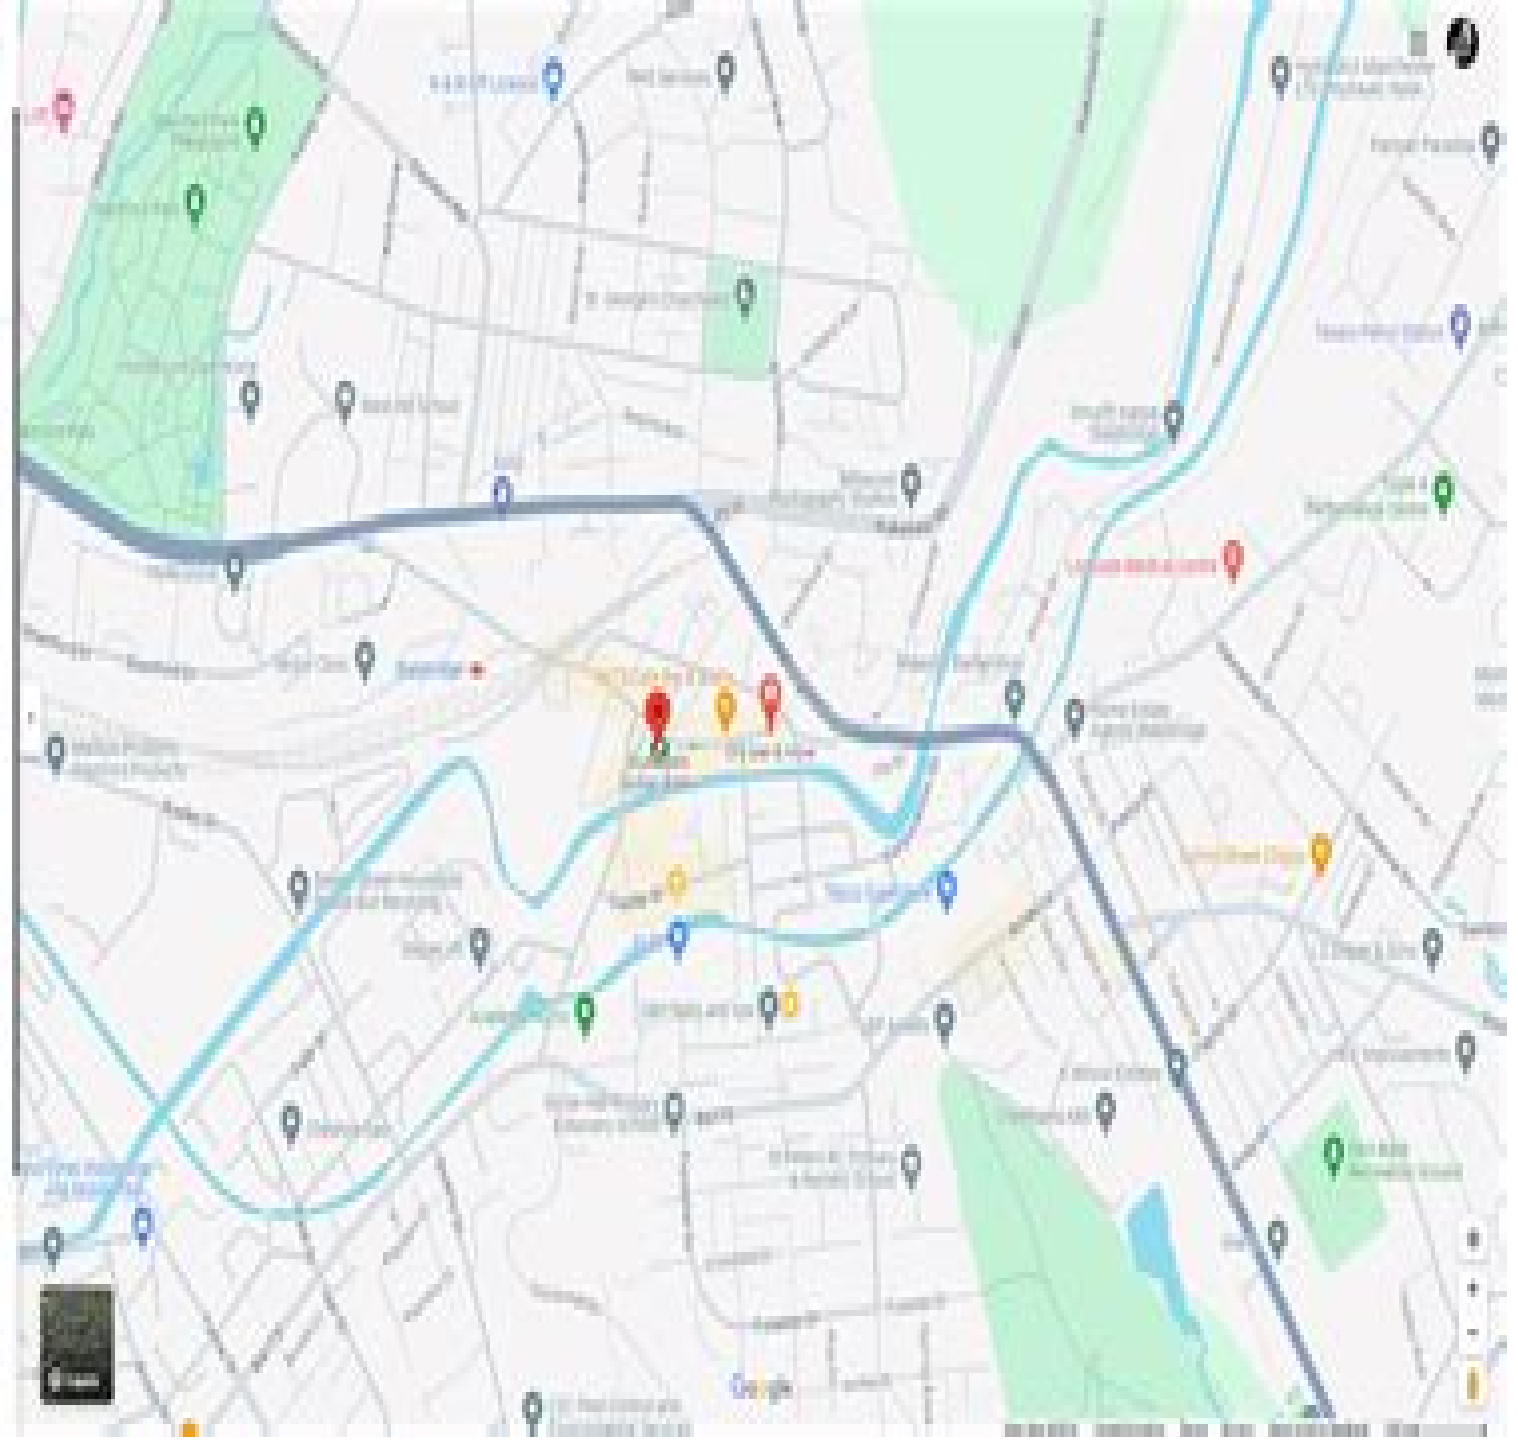

The prices, portions, and the service with polite views of excellent.

My one complaint would be the limited time you have the table for 15 minutes. This is clearly necessary given the small number of tables on offer, but with an extra half an hour we would have enjoyed Guinness, and an extra drink would.
