Netflix's Chilling Adventures of Sabrina Stephanie A. Graves, Cori Mathis, Melissa Tyndall, 2023-04-21 This book presents interdisciplinary perspectives on Netflix's Chilling Adventures of Sabrina situating the series within contemporary discourses of genre form historical place ideology and aesthetics The essays in this collection argue that the series unique blend of horror the Gothic and melodrama offers a compelling approach to the coming of age narrative and makes CAoS a significant part of the teen television canon

French B Movies David A. Pettersen, 2023-03-07 In the impoverished outskirts of French cities known as the banlieues minority communities are turning to American culture history and theory to make their own voices cultures and histories visible Filmmakers have followed suit turning to Hollywood genre conventions to challenge notions of identity belonging and marginalization in mainstream French film French B Movies proposes that French banlieue films far from being a fringe genre offer a privileged site from which to understand the current state of the French film industry in an age of globalization This gritty style appears in popular arthouse films such as Mathieu Kassovitz's La Haine and Bande de filles Girlhood along with the major Netflix hit series Lupin David Pettersen traces how in these works and others directors fuse features of banlieue cinema with genre formulas associated with both Hollywood and Black cultural models as well as how transnational genre hybridizations such as B movies have become part of the ecosystem of the French film industry By combining film analysis cultural history critical theory and industry studies French B Movies reveals how featuring banlieues is as much about trying to imagine new identities and production models for French cinema as it is about representation
