

THE PRIVILEGE AGAINST SELF-INCRIMINATION

- The Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination is the only privilege that has been incorporated into the U.S. Constitution and the constitutions of many states.
- The U.S. Constitution requires “that the government seeking to punish an individual produce the evidence against him by its own independent labor rather than by the cruel, simple expedient of compelling it from his own mouth.”

Privilege Against Self Incrimination:

Corporations and the Privilege against Self-Incrimination Stijn Lamberigts, 2022-12-29 This book asks whether the well established privilege against self incrimination applies to corporations whether it should and if so to what extent Those questions have an increasingly important EU criminal law dimension To answer them this study draws on comparative insights from Belgium England and Wales and the US as well as case law of the ECtHR and EU Law It covers the established CJEU case law in competition cases the recent CJEU ruling in DB v Consob and addresses Directive EU 2016 343 It will appeal to scholars of EU criminal law but also to white collar and competition practitioners EU Competition Enforcement and Human Rights A. Andreangeli, 2008-01-01 Arianna Andreangeli's book can be strongly recommended Academics and practitioners active in the field of competition law EU law and human rights will certainly find much of interest in this book Volker Soyez European Competition Law Review This book is well structured and well written The volume represents an important contribution to the existing legal literature on fundamental rights protection in the EU legal order from a competition law perspective Giacomo Di Federico Common Market Law Review This book discusses the procedural rights enjoyed by those being investigated under Articles 81 and 82 of the EC Treaty and of the Merger Control Regulation and their right to challenge the Commission's decision in the Community Courts It further assesses how their rights to due process in competition proceedings before the European Commission comply with the notion of administrative fairness enshrined in the European Convention on Human Rights in accordance with the case law of the European Court of Human Rights In this study Arianna Andreangeli takes into account key developments such as modernisation and its impact on competition proceedings before the Commission the debate on the principles of legal professional privilege the protection against self incrimination the rule of ne bis in idem and the possibility of establishing an EU competition court It offers an examination of the right to be heard the right to have access to the Commission held evidence and to legal professional privilege and the right to silence and to seek judicial review of Commission decisions and assess them in the light of the Strasbourg court's case law Academics active in the area of competition law EU law and human rights as well as practitioners active in the area of competition law will find much to interest them in this book The Privilege Against Self-Incrimination R. H. Helmholz, 1997-06-08 Levy this history of the privilege shows that it played a limited role in protecting criminal defendants before the nineteenth century The Privilege Against Self-incrimination and Criminal Justice Andrew L.-T. Choo, 2013 The privilege against self incrimination is often represented in the case law of England and Wales as a principle of fundamental importance in the law of criminal procedure and evidence A logical implication of recognising a privilege against self incrimination should be that a person is not compellable on pain of a criminal sanction to provide information that could reasonably lead to or increase the likelihood of her or his prosecution for a criminal offence Yet there are statutory provisions in England and Wales making it a criminal offence not to provide particular information that if provided could be used in a subsequent prosecution of the person providing it This book examines the operation of the privilege against self incrimination in criminal proceedings in England and Wales paying particular attention to the influence of the European Convention on Human Rights and the Human Rights Act 1998 Among the questions addressed are how the privilege might be justified and whether its scope is clarified sufficiently in the relevant case law does the privilege apply for example to pre existing material Consideration is given where appropriate to the treatment of aspects of the privilege in Australia Canada India New Zealand the USA and elsewhere Bloomsbury Publishing Reports of Cases Argued and Decided in the Supreme Court of the United States United States. Supreme Court,1950 Complete with headnotes summaries of decisions statements of cases points and authorities of counsel annotations tables and parallel references Lender Liability James O'Donovan,2005 Addresses the liability and risk issues that arise at each successive stage of the relationship between lenders and borrowers or guarantors This work adopts a practical transaction based approach examining the different stages of the relationship in turn and the legal issues that arise along the way It also gives guidance on breach of loans A Non-curial Privilege Against Self-incrimination Suzanne B. McNicol,1984 Evidence Andrew Choo,2012-04-12 Choo s Evidence provides a lucid and concise account of the principles of the law of civil and criminal evidence in England and Wales Critical and thought provoking it is the ideal text for undergraduate law students
