Leading Young Children to Music Beatrice Joan Elizabeth Haines, Linda L. Gerber, 1984 Step-up English Grammar and Composition 6 (A.Y. 2023-24) Onward Fr Francis M Peter, 2023-05-20 Language is one of the highest forms of expression It acts as the medium to make our ideas thoughts and feelings understood and appreciated Like art language can touch the heart and inspire the soul And at the heart and soul of a language lies its grammar Grammar helps the learners build a firm foundation for using the language It is therefore very important for learners to develop the grammar skills that they need in order to express themselves meaningfully and creatively Step up English Grammar and Composition 1 8 is an NEP aligned carefully graded grammar series developed to address the need of a systematic and step wise strategy for understanding grammar The series is based on the eclectic approach to language acquisition and presents a smooth blend of the inductive as well as the deductive method of teaching and learning the language Each concept has been covered in detail and great care has been taken to offer the relevant core concepts for the learners at each level Last but not least the utmost care has been taken to encapsulate in the series the key parameters laid down in National Education Policy NEP 2020. The NEP places the learner at the heart of the teaching learning process. In recent years there has been a paradigm shift towards designing a learner centric curriculum that is based on an activity based approach. There is also an equal emphasis on equipping young learners with essential twenty first century skills. The text as well as the activities in the book promote the holistic development of the learners. Besides there is a lot of emphasis on enhancing the creativity, critical thinking and communication and collaboration skills of learners.

Salient Features of the Book

A conscious effort has been made to incorporate the major NEP specifications. Simple, clear and detailed explanations of essential grammatical concepts have been given. Explanations are followed by ample examples and a variety of well graded exercises to reinforce the concepts. Simple and clear instructions have been given in the exercises for easy understanding. Fun based, art integrated exercises together with a wide range of activities like grids and puzzles have been used to bring the joy of learning to the classroom. There is also a great emphasis on building cross curricular grade appropriate vocabulary through exercises and comprehension. Speaking activities have been made a part of the grammar exercises to instil more confidence in the learners. All the explanations and exercises have been coupled with learner friendly layout and illustrations for additional support. Test papers have been introduced periodically to check if the learners have grasped the concepts.

Teacher's Resource Books comprise lessons, plans, additional activities and teaching guidelines along with the answer key for each book. They are meant to serve as a handy aid for teachers and facilitate a wholesome teaching learning experience. We hope this series caters to the requirements of the teachers as well as the students and meets our expectations in serving as a guide to the next generation of global citizens. While every possible effort has been made to avoid errors and omissions, any constructive suggestions for the improvement of the series will be welcomed and incorporated in future editions.

George Guangren Bao's journey to the West is different from that of the Chinese pioneers who came to San Francisco in the 1880s for the gold rush. As one of the 3.8 million Chinese Americans, George came to the United States in the 1980s when China's door to the United States was open and a generation of educated youth came to the United States to learn from the West. His story tells how the first generation of new immigrants from China came to live and work in the United States at a time when China was in its historical transitioning period. George walked out of a small village in China to the suburbs in Los Angeles. The 6,685 mile journey is accompanied by hardships, struggles, good fortune, blessings and opportunities. As a news reporter, his journey to the West comes step by step with the marks of the history China has gone through. To learn the history of New China is vague and somewhat boring, but to count his footsteps will be more specific and more interesting. George recalled his visit to Beijing at age sixteen to see Chairman Mao along with millions of Red Guards at the start of the Cultural Revolution in China. He tells how he was selected to be a worker peasant soldier student to study English at Anhui University and how he became a graduate student at the Institute of Journalism at the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences His first assignment as Washington correspondent in 1984 enabled him to see the tremendous gap between China and the United States Georges second journey to the West in 1991 finally makes the United States as his second home country He tells the differences in reporting for the Chinese state news agency and in reporting for the independent Chinese newspaper in the United States As a Chinese American his life is closely related with the ups and downs of both China where he was born and the United States where he has been naturalized Thats why he sincerely hopes that the United States will get along well with China and that the development of China is beneficial to the Chinese Americans like him and he is willing to work toward that goal National Hardware Bulletin ,1953
