Everyone Can Be a Ninja Akbar Gbajabiamila, 2019-05-07 The beloved host of the NBC hit show American Ninja Warrior draws inspiration from both the fierce competitors on his show and his own unlikely path to success to outline the essential steps to achieving your goals and becoming a modern day ninja Akbar Gbajabiamila the host of NBC s hit Emmy nominated show American Ninja Warrior did not have an easy path to success One of seven children to Nigerian immigrant parents he grew up in the Crenshaw district of South Central Los Angeles during the 1980s and 90s a time when the neighborhood was fraught with riots and gang violence With dreams of playing professional basketball Gbajabiamila found success not in the sport he loved but in football Late in his high school career Gbajabiamila suited up with pads for the first time and was thrown into the complex sport of football He climbed major hurdles to play college football and then professional football After playing in the NFL it was only after years of hard work behind the scenes in radio and television that he was offered the job to be the host of American Ninja Warrior Through his own inspirational underdog stories and interviews with modern day ninjas who have accomplished extraordinary things in their own lives against the odds Akbar proves in Everyone Can Be a Ninja that it doesn t matter if you make it through every step of the obstacle course on the first try Ninjas keep pushing themselves until they reach their goals and they don t let anyone or anything stand in their way It is easy to see greatness in others it s hard to see it in ourselves Everyone Can Be a Ninja shows you that we can fulfill our potential and achieve our dreams by finding our inner warriors

I've Got Mail Jeff Stelling, 2020-09-17 An entertaining read especially for those who like to share their Saturday afternoons with Jeff and the Gang The Sun I ve Got Mail is the brand new book from Jeff Stelling the Sunday Times bestselling author and host of Sky Sports iconic football show Soccer Saturday Reproducing a selection of correspondence he has received down the years Stelling tells some intriguing stories around his experiences in broadcasting and football This charming book is by turns warm and funny moving and poignant and invariably underpinned by a deeply rooted love of football and people It arrived while I was playing football I remember my mum running towards me dressed in pinny and slippers waving a piece of flesh coloured paper gripped in her hand the print all in slightly faded block capitals But the message from my new employer was clear and urgent BERNARD GENT UNWELL GO TO LEEDS IMMEDIATELY COVER LEEDS UNITED V MIDDLESBROUGH It was the first and last telegram I ever received It was a message that probably changed the course of my life It was the first of many pieces of correspondence during my life which have made me laugh cry or perhaps influenced my pathway in a more significant way Receiving letters by post or via e mail has always been important to me Even now I feel slightly disappointed if the postman passes the door without anything for me even though I know the chances are it will be a bill a parking fine a bank statement or a catalogue offering me clothing or garden furniture The same applies when my inbox is empty save for someone offering a deal on a used car or urging me to change my energy provider These days my mail is often from total strangers usually with a simple birthday or autograph request But at times the correspondence is emotional and sometimes it is angry Occasionally I m entrusted with personal issues that the correspondents probably would not tell their closest friends The only thing they all have in common is they start Dear Jeff Or almost all do

Hoping for the Best Sarah Berryman, 2016-11-22 Fed up of how to books and people with perfect children who do wonderful things all of the time This is how it really is in our house It s hectic it s noisy and it s messy most of the time But by and large it s a happy house Parenting book Hoping for the Best Three months in the life of a twin plus one mummy offers a unique day to day glimpse into the challenges and craziness thrown at a mum to three young boys Sarah has real children They did not sleep through from day one They did not master baby led weaning They have all had the norovirus chicken pox and two of the three have had nits They have bitten and been bitten One has a hearing aid one wears splints at night to stop him walking on tip toes and one has a speech delay They play a little bicker a lot and are friends and enemies in equal measure Hoping for the Best gives a rare insight into daily life with identical twins and the dynamics between them their younger feistier sibling and the rest of the family The book will appeal to other parents and those who enjoy humorous writing and family life biographies Started as a diary the book was born when other school mums suggested that this would be just the kind of book that they would love to read not a parenting manual not a book about becoming a new mum but the true reality of life as a mum with identical twins plus one With Sarah s mantra Hoping for the best prepared for the worst and unsurprised by anything in between a quote from the American author Maya Angelou woven through the diary this account portrays an indelible impression of resilience and humour through the colourful challenges of each and every day
