The Dirty Secrets of the Rich and Powerful James-Brent Styan, 2024-06-01 In 2018 the world watched as 82 per cent of all wealth created was claimed by the top 1 per cent of the global population The bottom 50 per cent of humanity saw no increase at all While one new billionaire was created every two days one in every four South Africans were living on less than R18 per day not enough to buy a loaf of bread Inequality has always been part of the world we live in but in the past twenty years the situation has worsened We have seen the rise of mega corporations where regional companies have become global players power brokers that are richer and more powerful than most countries This has seen businesses record ever increasing profits while they pay ever decreasing taxes How is this happening In South Africa millions of people depend on the services and products of mega corporations but to what extent do these corporations influence and affect the lives of their consumers What do these companies do with all the power that is in their hands In The Dirty Secrets of the Rich and Powerful James Brent Styan casts the spotlight on economic inequality and unpacks historical and ongoing business practices that have a real influence on people today This book takes you right into the corridors of power and behind the closed doors of the boardrooms of the rich and powerful to show you how and why the status quo seems so unfair Partisan Rhetoric and Polarization Robert X. Browning, 2024-12-15 Partisan Rhetoric and Polarization The Year in C SPAN Archives Research Volume 10 features chapters written from a variety of perspectives that address divisions in American politics The topics range widely including TikTok abortion the middle class the January 6 riot and partisan rhetoric in Congress The unifying theme of the volume is that each author uses C SPAN videos to examine how members of Congress and other elites speak and act on these issues Two other thoughtful pieces examine Supreme Court justices speaking off the bench and emotional reactions in presidential debates Partisan Rhetoric and Polarization provides context to understand how the partisan split in American politics is reflected and evidenced in even the highest political institutions Congress the presidency and the Supreme Court Analyse ertrag- und

Uju Ogu, 2025-09-24 Essay aus dem Jahr 2019 im Fachbereich BWL Customer Relationship Management CRM Sprache Deutsch Abstract This study investigates the multifaceted relationship between User Generated Content UGC brand trust and consumer purchase intentions In an era dominated by digital communication traditional marketing messages are increasingly challenged by the authenticity and influence of content created by consumers themselves This paper employs a comprehensive meta analysis of existing academic literature industry reports and publicly available data to synthesize key findings and identify overarching trends The research aims to answer the following questions 1 How does UGC impact the level of trust consumers place in a brand 2 What is the relationship between brand trust and subsequent purchase intentions in the context of UGC 3 What factors moderate the effect of UGC on consumer behavior The findings suggest a strong positive correlation where UGC significantly enhances brand trust which in turn leads to a higher likelihood of purchase However the study also reveals that the impact of UGC is moderated by factors such as the type of content e g reviews vs social media posts the perceived authenticity of the creator and the product category This research contributes to the marketing management literature by providing a synthesized view of the current state of knowledge and offering practical implications for marketers seeking to leverage the power of UGC

Exploring the impact of social media on individuals' self-esteem and body image Hanna Belhorodska, 2023-08-30 Essay from the year 2023 in the subject Communications Public Relations Advertising Marketing Social Media grade C Paedagogic Institute for Psychoanalysis and Psychotherapy Hannover language English abstract Social media offers a plethora of opportunities for individuals to share their thoughts experiences and interests with a global audience blurring the lines between personal and public spheres Users can post photos videos status updates and engage in real time conversations facilitating instant communication and fostering virtual communities Beyond personal interactions social media has also emerged as a powerful platform for businesses influencers and organizations to reach their target audiences influencing consumer behaviors and shaping societal trends The allure of social media lies in its promise of connectivity and belongingness allowing users to form and maintain social relationships regardless of physical proximity However the pervasive nature of these platforms and the constant exposure to a stream of curated content have raised concerns about their potential impact on individuals psychological well being In light of these concerns researchers and mental health professionals have sought to understand the intricate relationship between social media usage and individuals psychological well being particularly concerning self esteem and body image By investigating the potential effects of social media on these aspects researchers aim to unveil the complexities of virtual interactions and their implications for mental health This research paper aims to explore the impact of social media on individuals self esteem and body image with a focus on understanding how these platforms influence self perception body satisfaction and overall psychological well being By shedding light on this critical area of study this research intends to provide valuable insights for individuals parents educators mental health practitioners social media platforms and policymakers guiding the development of strategies to promote a healthier and more positive online environment

The Black Yearbook [Portraits and Stories] Adraint Khadafhi Bereal, 2024-01-16 A gripping exploration of the joys hardships and truths of Black students through intimate honest dialogues and stunning photography with a foreword by Kiese Laymon author of Heavy A radical reverential and restorative document of community Rebecca Bengal author of Strange Hours Photography Memory and the Lives of Artists When photographer Adraint Bereal graduated from the University of Texas he self published an impressive volume of portraits personal statements and interviews that explored UT's campus culture and offered an intimate look at the lives of Black students matriculating within a majority white space Bereal's work was inspired by his first photo exhibition at the George Washington Carver Museum in Austin entitled 17 that unearthed the experiences of the 925 Black men that made up just 1.7% of UT's total 52,000 student body Now Bereal expands the scope of his original project and visits colleges nationwide from Historically Black Colleges and Universities HBCUs to predominantly white institutions to trade schools and more Rather than dwelling on the monolith of trauma often associated with Black narratives Bereal is dedicated to using honest dialogue to share stories of true joy and triumph amidst the hardships prejudices and internal struggles Using an exciting and eclectic design approach to accompany the portraits and stories each individual profile effectively conveys the interviewee's unique voice tone and background The Black Yearbook reframes society's stereotypical perception of higher education by representing and celebrating the wide range of Black experiences on campuses
