Nutrition in Primary Schools Sally Brown,Kate Morris,2014-08-29 Get Cooking in the Classroom has been designed to provide teachers with the tools they need to include cooking in the classroom With relative ease teachers will be able to undertake a variety of healthy and fun food activities Many of the recipes do not even require access to an oven The book will help teachers meet the criteria of the September 2014 National Curriculum for all primary school children to learn cookery and about healthy eating It provides a step by step approach developing skills in food handling and understanding of the part food plays in the world around us along with a range of cross curricular links Each of the 15 recipes is made as an individual mixture so children make and see their own achievements The results are designed to go home with the child to share and demonstrate their new skills to siblings parents relations and friends The teacher s notes also offer suggestions of both how to increase the skill demand of the recipe and how to make it easier meaning that you can use the recipes through the whole age range of the school The authors are established Children s Cooking Consultants who are passionate about getting children cooking and have devised innovative simple methods of preparing healthy dishes that develop key skills knowledge and understanding Their experience of cooking with young children along with an in depth understanding of the new curriculum for cooking means they are uniquely qualified to create the recipes in this book to help you easily deliver the curriculum and support your school as you work to comply with The School Food Plan Class Cooking Sandy Sturmer,1995 Cooking Through Geography Marci Wolf,2017-03-10 This curriculum was developed with the homeschool family in mind and was created with a threefold purpose to give children an appreciation for the many different cultures in this world to teach children how to cook a wonderful life skill and to taste the flavor and variety of the diverse cultures around us I believe the table is the center of most cultures and food being shared is a huge part of bringing family friends and acquaintances together This curriculum is designed to encourage good penmanship critical thinking cooking skills awareness of the many cultures around us simple mapping skills and an appreciation and enjoyment of a wide variety of foods It can be adapted to any grade level as one is never too young or old to appreciate world culture and learn cooking skills It is my hope that through this curriculum it will bring family togetherness as the student enjoys and shares the fruits of his or her labor What you find inside the pages of this unique curriculum is how to use this curriculum a list of supplies three ring binder colored pencils etc cover sheet map and recipe forms for copying a list of countries recipes and a link to information about each country listed in the book What you will receive when the course is completed is an individualized student cookbook with handwritten recipes along side of maps that show where the recipe came from and information on each recipe page about the country studied This is one educational course that can go beyond the school years and helps give your student s a life skill that he she will take beyond graduation You can find out more at <https://cookingthroughgeography.wordpress.com>
