Pearson The Unlikely Gladiator:

Statesmen, Strategists, and Diplomats Patrice Dutil, 2023-06-15 Foreign policy is a tricky business Typically challenges and proposed solutions are perceived as disparate unless a leader can amass enough support for an idea that creates alignment And because the prime minister is typically the one proposing that idea Canadian foreign policy can be analyzed through the actions of these leaders Statesmen Strategists and Diplomats explores how prime ministers from Sir John A Macdonald to Justin Trudeau have shaped foreign policy by manipulating government structures adopting and rejecting options and imprinting their personalities on the process Contributors consider the impact of a wide range of policy decisions increasing or decreasing department budgets forming or ending alliances and pursuing trade relationships particularly as these choices affected the bureaucracies that deliver foreign policy diplomatically and militarily This innovative focus is destined to trigger a new appreciation for the formidable personal attention and acuity involved in a successful approach to external affairs Pearson's Peacekeepers Michael K. Carroll, 2010-01-01 In 1957 Lester Pearson won the Nobel Peace Prize for creating the United Nations Emergency Force during the Suez crisis The award launched Canada's enthusiasm and reputation for peacekeeping Pearson's Peacekeepers explores the reality behind the rhetoric by offering a detailed account of the UNEF's decade long effort to keep peace along the Egyptian Israeli border While the operation was a tremendous achievement the UNEF also encountered formidable challenges and problems This nuanced account of Canada's participation in the UNEF challenges perceived notions of Canadian identity and history and will help Canadians to accurately evaluate international peacekeeping efforts today Militärgeschichtliche Zeitschrift, 2009

Auto Pact Dimitry Anastakis, 2005-11-26 The 1965 Canada United States Automotive Trade agreement fundamentally reshaped relations between the automotive business and the state in both countries and represented a significant step toward the creation of an integrated North American economy Breaking from previous conceptions of the agreement as solely a product of intergovernmental negotiation Dimitry Anastakis's Auto Pact argues that the big three auto companies played a pivotal role and benefited immensely in the creation and implementation of this new automotive regime With the border effectively erased by the agreement the pact transformed these giant enterprises into truly global corporations Drawing from newly released archival sources Anastakis demonstrates that for Canada's automotive policy makers continentalism was a form of economic nationalism Although the deal represented the end of any notion of an indigenous Canadian automotive industry significant economic gains were achieved for Canadians under the agreement Anastakis provides a fresh and alternative view of the auto pact that places it firmly within contemporary debates about the nature of free trade as well as North American and indeed global integration Far from being a mere artefact of history the deal was a forebearer to what is now known as globalization Canada First, Not Canada Alone Adam Chapnick, Professor of Defence Studies Adam Chapnick, Asa McKercher, Assistant Professor of History Asa McKercher, 2024 The definitive history of

Canadian foreign policy since the 1930s Canada First Not Canada Alone examines how successive prime ministers have promoted Canada's national interests in a world that has grown increasingly complex and interconnected Case studies focused on environmental reform Indigenous peoples trade hostage diplomacy and wartime strategy illustrate the breadth of issues that shape Canada's global realm Drawing from extensive primary and secondary research Adam Chapnick and Asa McKercher offer a fresh take on how Canada positions itself in the world

Prime Ministers of Canada, 2002 Prime Ministers in Canada have provided critical leadership in defending Canada as an independent and sovereign country in North America and in general as a strong and united nation Sir John A Macdonald Canada's first Prime Minister for example championed the development of a transcontinental railway linking Canada from sea to sea the Atlantic Ocean to the Pacific Ocean against threats of manifest destiny by the United States Lester B Pearson for example helped champion Canada's leadership in constructive internationalism via the United Nations as an international peacekeeper Pierre Elliott Trudeau for example championed the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms as a critical contribution to civil rights and human rights in association with constitutional law This book supports a critical appreciation of political leadership by Prime Ministers of Canada via their speeches in association with Canadian political history and social constitutional development The editor of the book presents constitutional and other social cultural values that have been defended by Prime Ministers of Canada in the nation building of Canada and that have been threatened by the Neo Duplessis Jean Chrétien Prime Ministerial administration The Editor of the cited book is a member of the University of Toronto community including Heads of State for Canada since the seventeenth century Please note The cited book already includes an appendix with a proposed Canadian Language Act Includes also a speech by Prime Ministerial candidate X concerning a proposed Canadian transcontinental bullet train network

The Development of Political Thought in Canada Katherine Fierlbeck, 2005 This book presents selections of Canadian political thought from the nineteenth century to the present to show how ideas evolved over time to influence the values and debates of modern Canadians New Horizons of Globalization Gyan P Agarwal, 2007 Papers presented at a national seminar held at New Delhi on 10th March 2005 The World Book Encyclopedia: P, 2007 A 22 volume highly illustrated A Z general encyclopedia for all ages featuring sections on How to use WORLD BOOK Other Research Aids Pronunciation Key A Student Guide to Better Writing Speaking and Research Skills and comprehensive index Provided by publisher The Encyclopedia of the Cold War Spencer C.

Tucker, 2007-09-12 A comprehensive five volume reference on the defining conflict of the second half of the 20th century covering all aspects of the Cold War as it influenced events around the world The conflict that dominated world events for nearly five decades is now captured in a multivolume work of unprecedented magnitude from a publisher widely acclaimed for its authoritative military and historical references Under the direction of internationally known military historian Spencer Tucker ABC CLIO's The Encyclopedia of the Cold War A Political Social and Military History offers the most current and comprehensive treatment ever published of the ideological conflict that not so long ago enveloped the globe From the Second World War to the collapse of the Soviet Union The Encyclopedia of the Cold War provides authoritative information on all military conflicts battlefield and surveillance technologies diplomatic initiatives important individuals and organizations national histories economic developments societal and cultural events and more The nearly 1 300 entries plus topical essays and an extraordinarily rich documents volume draw heavily on recently opened Russian Eastern European and Chinese archives The work is a definitive cornerstone reference on one of the most important historical topics of our time

University of Toronto Quarterly University of Toronto, 2000 Book Review Digest, 2002 Peace Research, 2000 A monthly journal of original research on the problem of war While Canada Slept Andrew Cohen, 2003 Canada emerged from World War II with the world's fourth largest military and the infrastructure to build nuclear weapons if it wanted Today its military is a shadow of its once glorious self and Canada's diplomatic influence in the world is in decline according to Andrew Cohen a journalism professor at Ottawa's Carleton University In his book While Canada Slept Cohen laments the aimlessness of Canada's foreign policy and the lethargy of its politicians at a time of world turmoil He admits he isn't the first to make the argument His innovation is to survey Canada's once great influence and its woeful present through the eyes of three pioneers of its foreign affairs establishment Hume Wrong a legendary senior external affairs official Norman Robertson a clerk of the Privy Council and Lester Pearson the prime minister The three men gave Canada a reputation for punching above its weight and contributed to Canada's towering diplomatic role of the 1950s and 1960s Cohen writes that the three would be saddened by what has become of their country Canadians are a people without memory he suggests citing a survey that found 88 percent of those aged 18 to 34 could not identify Pearson's role in defusing the Suez crisis in 1956 We are no longer as strong a soldier as generous a donor and as effective a diplomat and it has diminished us as a people he writes While Cohen claims not to be partisan he is especially critical of Jean Chrétien's government for cutting funds from the military foreign aid and diplomatic service Some of Cohen s arguments have indeed been made before and they fall flat at times He doesn t explain for example why Canada should spend as much on the military as during the Korean War when it devoured 7.3 percent of GDP The book could also use an index But generally it is a decent effort to enliven the dry issue of Canada s foreign policy and is most interesting as a survey of the country s diplomatic heyday Cold War Spencer C. Tucker, Priscilla Roberts, 2007-09-10 Bulletin - Société Québécoise de Science Politique, 1999 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Edited by Butler Marian, Marian Butler, 2002-02 Containing more than 48000 titles of which approximately 4000 have a 2001 imprint the author and title index is extensively cross referenced It offers a complete directory of Canadian publishers available listing the names and ISBN prefixes as well as the street e mail and web addresses Index de Périodiques Canadiens, 2001 Documents on Canadian External Relations 1956-57 Greg Donaghy, 2001 This publication consists of historical documents related to Canadian foreign relations and covers the following topics the Middle East and the Suez crisis the United Nations the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and Commonwealth relations including the Colombo Plan and relations with individual countries such as Ghana Includes a list of important personalities mentioned in the documents and a subject index
