Seeing In The Dark A Compendium Of Cinemagoing:

Seeing in the Dark Ian Breakwell, Paul Hammond, 1990 Contributors who share a deep passion for the cinema recount their personal recollections of cinema going in this anthology which describes open air film shows in Baghdad or Australia childhood memories of the cinema in London fashionable art cinemas in New York and dingy flea pits elsewhere Cinema Memories Melvyn Stokes, Matthew Jones, Emma Pett, 2022-03-10 Cinema Memories brings together and analyses the memories of almost a thousand people of going to the cinema in Britain during the 1960s It offers a fresh perspective on the social cultural and film history of what has come to be seen as an iconic decade with the release of films such as A Taste of Honey The Sound of Music Darling Blow Up Alfie The Graduate and Bonnie and Clyde Drawing on first hand accounts authors Melvyn Stokes Matthew Jones and Emma Pett explore how cinema goes constructed meanings from the films they watched through a complex process of negotiation between the films concerned their own social and cultural identities and their awareness of changes in British society Their analysis helps the reader see what light the cultural memory of 1960s cinema going sheds on how the Sixties in Britain is remembered and interpreted Positioning their study within debates about memory 1960s cinema and the seemingly transformative nature of this decade of British history the authors reflect on the methodologies deployed the use of memories as historical sources and the various ways in which cinema and cinema going came to mean something to their audiences Modernist Communities across Cultures and Media Caroline Pollentier, Sarah Wilson, 2019-02-01 Questioning the assumption that modernism coincided with a loss of community Modernist Communities Across Cultures and Media seeks to recover modernism's own communal impulses Through a transnational and transmedial lens this volume explores the diverse ways in which modernism reconfigured the relationships between the individual and the communal Audiences Ian Christie, 2012 This timely volume engages with one of the most important shifts in recent film studies the turn away from text based analysis towards the viewer Historically this marks a return to early interest in the effect of film on the audience by psychoanalysts and psychologists which was overtaken by concern with the effects of film linked to calls for censorship and moral panics rather than to understanding the mental and behavioral world of the spectator Early cinema history has revealed the diversity of film viewing habits while traditional box office studies which treated the audience initially as a homogeneous market have been replaced by the study of individual consumers and their motivations Latterly there has been a marked turn towards more sophisticated economic and sociological analysis of attendance data And as the film experience fragments across multiple formats the perceptual and cognitive experience of the individual viewer who is also an auditor has become increasingly accessible With contributions from Gregory Waller John Sedgwick and Martin Barker this work spans the spectrum of contemporary audience studies revealing work being done on local non theatrical and live digital transmission audiences and on the relative attraction of large scale domestic and mobile platforms Publisher's website Der Bewegung einer Linie folgen ... Joachim

Paech,2002 Die Alte Stadt ,2001 Artist's Book Yearbook ,1994 Beginning Film Studies Andrew Dix,2008-07-15
