Klatell, Norman Marcus, 1988 Although sports broadcasting has never been more popular with the fans, the advent of cable TV and the proliferation of televised sporting events has greatly eroded each network's share of revenue in the billion-dollar industry, spawning a dramatic growth of corporate marketing campaigns and sporting events that are manipulated through advances in technology. Magazine Circulation, Sales and Promotion New York University. Origins Thomas D. Morgan, 2001 Sales and Agency Conference, 1958 Antitrust Law Charles J. Goetz, Fred S. McChesney, 2009 This casebook excels at communicating a sense of how antitrust law affects both business decisions and lawyerly practice. It addresses the initial difficulty that most students experience in understanding how the different statutes, doctrinal developments, and economic issues fit together to form a reasonably coherent picture. The authors achieve this by presenting a set of overview materials that provide a clear road map and useful perspectives Although the text is sparing in its presentation of economic models the authors have also integrated important economics into every part of the text This casebook shows how a few simple models as well as more general implications of social science thinking yield important insights and also wield much influence in antitrust jurisprudence It includes use of clarifying visual aid exhibits to help students better understand complex issues in law as well as economics The Industrial Digest ,1922 Industrial Digest and Commodities & Finance ,1922 Hardware Retailer ,1946 Includes directory issue July issue
