Writing Manuals for the Masses Anneleen Masschelein,Dirk de Geest,2020-12-15 This open access collection of essays examines the literary advice industry since its emergence in Anglo American literary culture in the mid nineteenth century within the context of the professionalization of the literary field and the continued debate on creative writing as art and craft Often dismissed as commercial and stereotypical by authors and specialists alike literary advice has nonetheless remained a flourishing business embodying the unquestioned values of a literary system but also functioning as a sign of a literary system in transition Exploring the rise of new online amateur writing cultures in the twenty first century this collection of essays considers how literary advice proliferates globally leading to new forms and genres

Psycho-Politics And Cultural Desires Janet Harbord,Jan Campbell,2005-08-04 This book focuses on the past present and future of cultural studies Dealing with issues of methodology as well as mapping out the history and theories of the subject it gives a clear overview of the central ideas within the area

Autofiction in English Hywel Dix,2018-06-04 This innovative volume establishes autofiction as a new and dynamic area of theoretical research in English Since the term was coined by Serge Doubrovsky autofiction has become established as a recognizable genre within the French literary pantheon Yet unlike other areas of French theory English language discussion of autofiction has been relatively limited until now Starting out by exploring the characteristic features and definitions of autofiction from a conceptual standpoint the collection identifies a number of cultural historical and theoretical contexts in which the emergence of autofiction in English can be understood In the process it identifies what is new and distinctive about Anglophone forms of autofiction when compared to its French equivalents These include a preoccupation with the conditions of authorship writing after trauma and a heightened degree of authorial self reflexivity beyond that typically associated with postmodernism By concluding that there is such a field as autofiction in English it provides for the first time detailed analysis of the major works in that field and a concise historical overview of its emergence It thus opens up new avenues in life writing and authorship research
