Please click the green button to begin the Authorization process. This will take you to Seller Central where you must confirm the access. After you click confirm on Seller Central, it should automatically direct you back to this page and show "Authorization Successful".

Authorize

To generate data RevSeller shows on Amazon product pages, RevSeller makes requests to Amazon's Selling Partner APIs (SP-API) on your behalf. Amazon requires that you authorize RevSeller to do that, and you can do that starting on this page.

With SP-API we are able to request fewer permissions than were previously required with Amazon's MWS API.

We only request product and restrictions information, and we do not edit data.
