Philosophical Issues In Art:

Philosophical Issues in Art Patricia Hoque Werhane, 1984 This anthology on aesthetics illustrates abstract philosophical readings with comments by artists and with a number of art works Philosophical Questions in Art Education Dorit Barchana-Lorand, 2025-08-21 This book examines the rationale of incorporating the arts in the school curriculum from a philosophical rather than pedagogical perspective Educational resources are frequently under scrutiny and education policy makers wish to maximize the use of public funds and children s time at school leaving the arts as a lower priority To understand the logic behind this Lorand revisits milestones in the history of the philosophy of art to address core questions in art education namely what are the challenges of teaching the arts And why teach the arts at all Lorand draws on the work of a broad range of philosophers including Dewey Eisner Greene Hume Plato Kant Langer Read and Schiller The book aims to show how attempts to justify art as a tool for societal and individual improvement fail in advocating art education Ultimately she claims that the arts should be taught because children have the right to receive art education Philosophy of Art David Boersema, 2018-05-04 This book addresses That right stems from the unique nature of art issues in the philosophy of art through the lenses of the three broad areas of philosophy metaphysics epistemology and axiology It surveys many important and pervasive topics connected to a philosophical understanding of art Philosophie der Kunst / Aesthetics and Philosophy of Art Jürgen Stolzenberg, Karl Ameriks, 2007-01-30 The fourth volume of the International Yearbook of German Idealism is devoted to the aesthetics and philosophy of art of classical German philosophy After A G Baumgarten and Kant aesthetics attained an independent systematic form one which remains influential to this day Schelling the Jena Romantics and Schopenhauer bestowed upon aesthetics the status of first philosophy a status that was then criticized by Hegel among others This volume contains an extensive interview with Arthur Danto and Dieter Henrich about the significance of idealist aesthetics and its relation to contemporary art and aesthetic theory Ten other contributions take up the themes of this discussion Detailed comparative studies explore the aesthetic theories of Kant Fichte Schiller Schelling Hegel and Schleiermacher and mine their contemporary relevance Knowing Art Matthew Kieran, Dominic McIver Lopes, 2007-10-20 Artworks potentially convey two kinds of knowledge They obviously afford knowledge of art itself and they also afford general empirical knowledge especially knowledge of human psychology and value Knowing Art collects ten original essays written by leading philosophers who distill and build upon recent work at the intersection of aesthetics and epistemology Specific topics addressed include the objectivity of critical knowledge the quality of critical testimony the roles of principles and perception in critical reasoning phenomenal knowledge of what a work of art is like the acquisition of factual information and psychological understanding from fictions and the limits of images as sources of historical evidence In addressing these topics the volume also explores the challenges that art poses for theories of knowledge as well as the challenges that artistic knowledge poses to traditional views about art Philosophy and

Conceptual Art Peter Goldie, Elisabeth Schellekens, 2007-03-22 The fourteen prominent analytic philosophers writing here engage with the cluster of philosophical questions raised by conceptual art They address four broad questions What kind of art is conceptual art What follows from the fact that conceptual art does not aim to have aesthetic value What knowledge or understanding can we gain from conceptual art How ought we to appreciate conceptual art Conceptual art broadly understood by the contributors as beginning with Marcel Duchamp's ready mades and as continuing beyond the 1970s to include some of today's contemporary art is grounded in the notion that the artist's idea is central to art and contrary to tradition that the material work is by no means essential to the art as such To use the words of the conceptual artist Sol LeWitt In conceptual art the idea of the concept is the most important aspect of the work and the execution is a perfunctory affair Given this so called dematerialization of the art object the emphasis on cognitive value and the frequent appeal to philosophy by many conceptual artists there are many questions that are raised by conceptual art that should be of interest to analytic philosophers Why then has so little work been done in this area This volume is most probably the first collection of papers by analytic Anglo American philosophers tackling these concerns head on Contributors Margaret Boden Diarmuid Costello Gregory Currie David Davies Peter Goldie Robert Hopkins Matthew Kieran Peter Lamarque Dominic McIver Lopes Derek Matravers Elisabeth Schellekens Kathleen Stock Carolyn Wilde and the Art Language group Interpretation Eric Dayton, 1999-02-02 Art and Interpretation is a comprehensive anthology of readings on aesthetics Its aim is to present fundamental philosophical issues in such a way as to create a common vocabulary for those from diverse backgrounds to communicate meaningfully about aesthetic issues To that end the editor has provided selections from a wide variety of challenging works in aesthetic theory both classical and modern The approach is often cross disciplinary Within the discipline of philosophy it seeks to balance readings from the analytic tradition with continental European hermeneutical postmodern including deconstructionist and feminist readings The anthology is thus broadly conceived but by grouping the readings into sections such as Expression and Aesthetic object Psychology and Interpretation Marxist Theory and Culture Gender and Difference it aims as well to provide depth of coverage for each topic or issue The book opens with a historical section containing substantial selections from Plato Aristotle Hume Kant Shelley and Nietzsche these readings introduce themes that recur and are developed in the remainder of the anthology The Philosophy of Art in America, a Dissertation Upon Vital Topics of the Day Charles Henry Miller, Carl De Muldor, 1885 Musical Performance Stan Godlovitch, 2002-01-31 Most music we hear comes to us via a recording medium on which sound has been stored Such remoteness of music heard from music made has become so commonplace it is rarely considered Musical Performance A Philosophical Study considers the implications of this separation for live musical performance and music making Rather than examining the composition or perception of music as most philosophical accounts of music do Stan Godlovitch takes up the problem of how the tradition of active music playing and performing has been challenged by technology and what problems

this poses for philosophical aesthetics Where does does the value of musical performance lie Is human performance of music a mere transfer medium Is the performance of music more expressive than recorded music Musical Performance poses questions such as these to develop a fascinating account of music today musicians but via some recording medium on which sound has been stored Figuring Out Figurative Art Derek Matravers, Damien Freeman, 2021-06-29 In 1797 Friedrich Schlegel wrote that philosophy of art usually lacks one of two things either the philosophy or the art This collection of essays contains both the philosophy and the art It brings together an international team of leading philosophers to address diverse philosophical issues raised by recent works of art Each essay engages with a specific artwork and explores the connection between the image and the philosophical content Thirteen contemporary philosophers demonstrate how philosophy can aid interpretation of the work of ten contemporary artists including Jesse Prinz on John Currin Barry C Smith and Edward Winters on Dexter Dalwood Lydia Goehr and Sam Rose on Tom de Freston Raymond Geuss on Adrian Ghenie and Chantal Joffe Hallvard Lillehammer on Paul Noble M M McCabe and Alexis Papazoglou on Ged Quinn No l Carroll on Paula Rego Simon Blackburn and Jerrold Levinson on George Shaw Sondra Bacharach on Yue Minjun The discussion ranges over ethical political psychological and religious concepts such as irony disgust apathy inequality physiognomy and wonder to historical experiences of war Marx inspired political movements and Thatcherism and standard problems in the philosophy of art such as expression style depiction and ontology of art as well as major topics in art history such as vanitas painting photography pornography and Dadaism Many of the contributors are distinguished in areas of philosophy other than aesthetics and are writing about art for the first time All show how productive the engagement can be between philosophy more generally and Living Issues in Philosophy Harold Hopper Titus, Marilyn S.
