Phyllis Shand Allfrey A Caribbean Life:

Phyllis Shand Allfrey Lizabeth Paravisini-Gebert,1996 Phyllis Shand Allfrey is the first biography of one of the Caribbean's most intriguing writers and politicians Allfrey 1908-1986 is best known as the author of The Orchid House a fictionalized account of her early life that was turned into a highly acclaimed film for British television Born to a prominent family of formerly wealthy sugar planters in Dominica Allfrey followed an unexpected path a rising novelist who is often paired with Jean Rhys in critical discussion and Fabian socialist in England and the United States she returned to Dominica to organize the peasantry and estate workers into the island's first political party Ostracized by the white elite into which she was born she led the Dominica Labour party to power and became the West Indian Federation's only woman and only white minister only to find herself expelled from the party when the rise of black nationalism made it expedient The biography recreates Allfrey's life as it unfolds against the background of twentieth century Caribbean political and literary history from the decline of the planter class through the rise of party politics and the efforts to join the anglophone West Indies into a federation to the troubled sixties and seventies decades marked by racial violence and the emergence of the former British territories from colonial control This volume includes five autobiographical stories that have long been out of print

Contemporary Caribbean Women's Poetry Denise deCaires Narain,2003-08-29 Contemporary Caribbean Women's Poetry provides detailed readings of individual poems by women poets whose work has not yet received the sustained critical attention it deserves These readings are contextualized both within Caribbean cultural debates and postcolonial and feminist critical discourses in a lively and engaged way revisiting nationalist debates as well as topical issues about the performance of gendered and raced identities within poetic discourse Newly available in paperback this book is groundbreaking reading for all those interested in postcolonialism Gender Studies Caribbean Studies and contemporary poetry Reading the

"new" Literatures in a Postcolonial Era Susheila Nasta,2000 Essays on the contribution of African Caribbean Asian and diaspora writers to English literature The new literatures have most commonly been seen as a staging post en route to the current post colonial era Yet these literatures and the diverse cultural histories they represent are older than such recent interpretations of them This collection of essays investigates ways in which we can return to reading these new literatures without falling back on current critical assumptions Encyclopedia of World Writers, 1800 to the Present Marie

Diamond,2020-07-01 In recent years schools have started introducing more inclusive syllabi emphasizing the works and ideas of previously overlooked or underrepresented writers Readers of all ages can now explore the rich contributions of writers from around the world These writers have various backgrounds and unlike most writers from the U S or the United Kingdom information on them in English can be difficult to find Encyclopedia of World Writers 1800 to the Present covers the most important writers outside of the U S Britain and Ireland since 1800 More than 330 insightful A to Z entries profile novelists poets dramatists and short story writers whose works are anthologized in textbooks or assigned in high school English
