Philosophy In Russia From Herzen To Lenin And Berdyaev:

Philosophy in Russia Frederick Copleston, 2010-01-07 Philosophy in Russia covers its subject broadly and in detail from the eighteenth century to Lenin and beyond into the post Stalin period It offers a continuous history of the development of philosophical thought in Russia and portraits of individual and influential thinkers The author devotes careful analysis to radicals such as Bakunin Herzen Chernyshevsky and Lavrov and to the Marxists such as Plekhanov and Lenin He also discusses the thought of writers such as Kireevsky Leontiev and Solovyev and examines the philosophically relevant ideas of Dostoevsky and Tolstoy He also discusses Russian thinkers in exile such as Berdyaev Frank N O Lossky and Shestov For historical reasons philosophical thought in Russia has tended to become socially or politically committed thought To what extent genuine philosophical thought has proved to be compatible with the monopoly enjoyed by Marxism Leninism in the fields of education and publishing is a crucial question discussed in this authoritative study Philosophy in Russia
