Waks, 2014-11-26 In the late 1950s plans were initiated to bring a higher level of professionalism to the training of educational professionals New projects included introducing contemporary scholarship from the humanities and social sciences into colleges of education to revitalize the education knowledge base In North America and the United Kingdom analytical philosophers were recruited to inaugurate a new philosophy of education Analytical philosophy of education soon spread throughout the English speaking world By the 1980s this analytical impulse had largely subsided Philosophers trained in analytical philosophy and their students turned to more ambitious normative pursuits related to problems of social justice and democracy Meanwhile feminist philosophers opened up new issues regarding the education of women and the nature of teaching and knowing and a new wave of pragmatist philosophers turned to issues of educational policy By the 1990s Anglo American philosophers of education welcomed a dialogue with counterparts in Western Europe and the field responded to established trends in European philosophy ranging from critical theory and phenomenology to post structuralism New leaders emerged in philosophy of education representing all of these various strands This volume documents the emergence of contemporary philosophy of education as seen by those spearheading these trends

Philosophical Education Beyond the Classroom Markus Tiedemann, 2024-02-15 Didactics of philosophy and ethics demands problem based orientation and relevance for real life experiences However excursions extracurricular places of learning or outdoor education have hardly been taken into account A systematic exploration of possible cooperations synergy effects or incompatibilities has not yet been carried out The present volume attempts to close this gap and to create an initial basis for further research testing and discussion It is intended to make a contribution to teacher training at universities and study seminars as well as to exploratory research in subject didactics
