Philosophy on Nature. Translated by Amethe Von Zeppelin Moritz Schlick, 1949      Grundzüge der Naturphilosophie.
Philosophy of nature ... translated by Amethe von Zeppelin. (Editors.-Walter Hollitscher, Josef Rauscher.). Moritz Schlick, Walter Hollitscher, Josef Rauscher, Amethe SMEATON (afterwards ZEPPELIN (Amethe von) Countess.), 1949      The Journal of Philosophy , 1963 Vols 31 include A Bibliography of philosophy 1933      Nietzsche's Anthropic Circle George J. Stack, 2005 Nietzsche's Anthropic Circle is an internal analysis and interpretation of Nietzsche's critical uncovering of anthropomorphic truth in language and science as well as his later use of anthropic analogies and transferences in his imaginative perspectival interpretation a hybrid of art and science of a universal immanent will to power in nature Both the relationship of Nietzsche to Kant's analysis of knowledge in the Critique of Pure Reason and his absorption of a dynamic theory of nature are explored in some detail A crucial distinction between Nietzsche's perspectival concept of knowledge and perspectival interpretation is thoroughly discussed against the background of recurring analyses of his critique of knowledge and truth It is shown that instrumental fictionalism was adopted by Nietzsche in order to put in question the pure objectivism of science This links an aspect of his thought to the domain of recent American philosophy of science The anticipatory relationship between Nietzsche's proto structuralist analysis of language and recent linguistic structuralism as well as his affiliation with evolutionary epistemology is explored In the concluding portion of this inquiry it is contended that Nietzsche's psychology of a will to power in human drives thought and behavior is at least theoretically defensible However it must be segregated from the extension of a will to power to the cosmos There is a strong concluding argument offered that seeks to demonstrate that the so called metaphysics of the will to power is an artfully constructed exoteric fable designed to retrieve a sense of the humanization of the world in face of a de anthropomorphic world picture George Stack is Professor Emeritus of Philosophy at the State University College of New York at Brockport and the author of several books dealing with the philosophy of Friedrich Nietzsche      Physical science and physical reality Louis Osgood Kattsoff, 2013-11-11      The Modern Schoolman , 1966      Catalog of the Library of the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia.
