101 Tips to Ace Your Promotional Exam Steve Prziborowski, 2021-01-13 Chief Steve Prziborowski reveals more than 101 tips for getting promoted and becoming a vital asset to your fire department family and community. From soft skills to hard truths, this book covers what you need to move up the ranks the right way. FEATURING Sound advice for personal growth and personal improvement for any firefighter of any rank who wishes to advance. Insights, tricks, and tips for avoiding the pitfalls while preparing for a comprehensive promotional testing process. Bonus Guidance from 37 professional knowledgeable fire service veterans. What others are saying: Just like firefighting, getting promoted and moving up isn't something you can succeed in alone; it takes a team. Steve has assembled a whole bunch of good fire service veterans who own their very personal experiences, bumps, and bruises along with their successes to help you figure this out. Sit back and prepare to soak up decades of advice based on experience so you can start the climb up. Deputy Chief Billy Goldfeder: Proudly bumped and bruised since 1973. After years of teaching thousands of aspiring fire rescue officers, Steve Prziborowski has documented his highly successful training information. You need this book if you are looking to get the edge up on the competition and demonstrate to the hiring authority that you are ready for the job. If you are serious about being a successful fire rescue officer at any rank, do yourself a favor and add this text to your personal library today. Fire Chief Dennis L. Rubin: Committing to taking a promotional exam requires a Herculean effort, a never looking back attitude, and a willingness to give up your life as you know it until the exam is over. The book is an invaluable resource to guide your journey. Study hard and then study harder. Good luck. Deputy Chief Ret. Anthony Avillo, North Hudson Regional NJ Fire and Rescue. Facing the Promotional Interview John Mittendorf, 2003. In this all-encompassing new guide, veteran fire chief and best-selling author John Mittendorf explains the subtle requirements of the promotional interview process. This book is designed to help fire fighters avoid the common pitfalls of poor interviews by teaching them how to develop a balanced study program. Why the first 60 seconds of an interview are critical and what you can do to make a good impression. How to relate your qualifications to the position sought. What to expect in the opening, body, and closing questions of an interview. Typical opening questions. How to define and prepare an opening response for the positions of engineer, sergeant, lieutenant, captain, and battalion chief. The Teacher's Guide to Successful Job Transfers and Promotions Joanne Wachter Ghio, 2005-03-30. Are you a talented teacher in the classroom but a little rusty when it comes to looking for your next teaching job? This handbook by the best-selling author of Time Saving Tips for Teachers will give you the advantage you need to succeed. Joanne Wachter's years of hiring experience as a public school system supervisor have taught her that good teachers are often reluctant to toot their own horns or just may not know how to impress interviewers. Given the intense competition today's teachers need to know how to put their best foot forward to get that deserved transfer or promotion. This detailed how-to manual will walk you through every step in the job change process, including setting goals, including a quiz to find out what you really want in a job.
