Co-Creativity and Engaged Scholarship Alex Franklin, 2022-01-02 This open access book explores creative and collaborative forms of research praxis within the social sustainability sciences The term co creativity is used in reference to both individual methods and overarching research approaches Supported by a series of in depth examples the edited collection critically reviews the potential of co creative research praxis to nurture just and transformative processes of change Included amongst the individual chapters are first hand accounts of such as militant research strategies and guerrilla narrative decolonial participative approaches appreciative inquiry and care ethics deep mapping photo voice community arts digital participatory mapping creative workshops and living labs The collection considers how through socially inclusive forms of action and reflection such co creative methods can be used to stimulate alternative understandings of why and how things are and how they could be It provides illustrations of and problematizes the use of co creative methods as overtly disruptive interventions in their own right and as a means of enriching the transformative potential of transdisciplinary and more traditional forms of social science research inquiry The positionality of the researcher together with the emotional and embodied dimensions of engaged scholarship are threads which run throughout the book So too does the question of how to communicate sustainability science research in a meaningful way

American Gothic: Reflections on Gothic Architectural Scholarship in America, 1925-2025 , 2025-08-04 This book chronicles the contributions of American scholars to the study of European Gothic architecture It traces this history through a series of biographical case studies of major figures ranging from Arthur Kingsley Porter to Robert Branner and Jean Bony to Caroline Bruzelius calling attention to their influence as mentors and to the character of their professional networks These biographical chapters are supplemented by thematic essays and a roundtable discussion of current issues in the field Altogether the book explains how working from overseas presents both significant challenges and valuable perspectives allowing American scholars to enrich dialog in the field Contributors are Robert Bork Caroline Bruzelius Meredith Cohen S Diane Daussy Jennifer M Feltman Erin Hulbert Maile Hutterer Matthew Reeve Lisa Reilly Rebecca Smith Zachary Stewart Kyle Sweeney Kristine Tanton Sarah Thompson Arnaud Timbert and Joseph Williams

Public Scholarship in Communication Studies Thomas J. Billard, Silvio Waisbord, 2024-03-26 Prometheus brought the gift of enlightenment to humanity and suffered for his benevolence This collection takes on scholars Promethean view of themselves as selfless bringers of light and instead offers a new vision of public scholarship as service to society Thomas J Billard and Silvio Waisbord curate essays from a wide range of specialties within the study of communication Aimed at scholars and students alike the contributors use approaches from critical meditations to case studies to how to guides as they explore the possibilities of seeing shared knowledge not as a gift to be granted but as an imperative urging readers to address the problems of the world Throughout the volume the works show that a pivot to ideas of scholarship as public service is already underway in corners of communication studies across the
