

TOP 3 TIPS

FOR IMPRESSIVE

COVER LETTER INTRODUCTION

- 1 Avoid Using “To Whom It May Concern” and “Dear Sir or Madam”
Find out the hiring manager’s name, and address your letter to them. If it’s not specified in the job posting, check the company’s website or LinkedIn. You should even call or email the company’s human resources department to ask for the right name if necessary.
- 2 Don’t write “I’m writing to apply for [Position Name]”
Write impressive introduction which include your personal interest for the job and the company. There are several interesting ways to start a cover letter. For instance, you can choose to be creative, funny, passionate, or accomplishment-focused.
- 3 Start with confidence — but don’t be arrogant
The biggest mistakes you can make when starting a cover letter are coming off as apologetic, or coming off as arrogant. Never apologize for anything, whether it’s a lack of experience, or a work gap that’s hard to explain. Never brag or make wild, unprovable claims about your skills and abilities.
