Pandemic Emily K. Johnson, Anastasia Salter, 2022-08-26 Educational technology adoption is more widespread than ever in the wake of COVID 19 as corporations have commodified student engagement in makeshift packages marketed as gamification This book seeks to create a space for playful learning in higher education asserting the need for a pedagogy of care and engagement as well as collaboration with students to help us reimagine education outside of prescriptive educational technology Virtual learning has turned the course management system into the classroom and business platforms for streaming video have become awkward substitutions for lecture and discussion Gaming once heralded as a potential tool for rethinking our relationship with educational technology is now inextricably linked in our collective understanding to challenges of misogyny white supremacy and the circulation of misinformation The initial promise of games based learning seems to linger only as gamification a form of structuring that creates mechanisms and incentives but limits opportunity for play As higher education teeters on the brink of unprecedented crisis this book proclaims the urgent need to find a space for playful learning and to find new inspiration in the platforms and interventions of personal gaming and in turn restructure the corporatized surveilling classroom of a gamified world Through an in depth analysis of the challenges and opportunities presented by pandemic pedagogy this book reveals the conditions that led to the widespread failure of adoption of games based learning and offers a model of hope for a future driven by new tools and platforms for personal experimental game making as intellectual inquiry Impact of Influencer Marketing on Young Women's Customer Experience on

Cosmetic Products Jule Prescher, 2023-06-06 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2023 in the subject Communications Multimedia Internet New Technologies grade 1 3 University of applied sciences Cologne language English abstract This thesis aims to realize how influencer marketing performs and its impact on the Cx Therefore the research addresses the following questions How powerful are influencers these days What is different about influencer marketing and why is it a successful strategy How do people perceive information shared by influencers and which factors are decisive for potential customers to purchase products advertised by influencers What impact does an influencer have on the overall Cx The internet has been fully integrated into people s daily lives worldwide over the past years The percentage of the world s population with access to the internet has doubled from 32% in 2011 to 63% in 2021 90% of people from developed countries access the internet in 2021 At the same time the number of social network users is increasing These networks have the purpose of connecting with friends In 2022 5 billion people have access to the internet worldwide and 4.7 billion people use social media SM Ultimately 93% of those with internet access own at least one SM account that is more than half the population worldwide Through time companies found new marketing strategies which reached active people on SM These platforms are necessary to reach Generation Z people born in the late 1990s They are different and cannot be reached in the same way as they watch Netflix instead of TV or listen to Spotify instead of the radio for example Influencer marketing became a 10 billion industry in 2020 Influencers share their lives on SM networks Due to their high reach they receive offers from companies for cooperation Influencers followers admire and trust their recommendations due to their personal and authentic representation While advertising products influencers show how to use them where to buy them and give their opinion For higher sales influencers often receive promo codes for a discount or free products for each order
