Clean, Green and Responsible? Gabriel Eweje, Ralph J. Bathurst, 2019-07-22 New Zealand and Australia are broadly considered to be countries in which sustainability and responsibility discourses are being pursued by governments and business alike and in which incentives and initiatives are helping confront and overcome sustainability related challenges This book takes a closer look behind and beyond the marketing mantras of both Australia's and New Zealand's clean and green campaigns and on the basis of representative examples and cases critically evaluates the status quo The book assesses the effectiveness of sustainability and responsibility models with a focus on the South Pacific and argues that the ways in which issues have been dealt with in this more closely defined geographical region are most likely a good indicator of how similar issues are or soon will be dealt with around the globe As such the book offers a rich source of cases on sustainability and responsibility in the business arena a critical review and an inspirational affirmation of responsible business practice
