Power Rights And Poverty Concepts And Connections:

Power, Rights and Poverty Ruth Alsop, 2005-01-01 This publication contains a number of essays and supplementary materials based on a two day working meeting held in Washington D C in March 2004 and organised jointly by the World Bank and the UK Department for International Development to consider the relationships between power rights and poverty reduction issues in theory and practice Issues addressed include competing definitions and concepts of power and rights using experiences drawn from different countries ways of helping development practitioners to apply these concepts to their work a summary of the major theoretical conceptualisations of power and a literature review on power and rights Beyond

Peacebuilding Roberta Holanda Maschietto, 2016-10-12 This book uses the concept of empowerment as a means to understand peacebuilding in Mozambique In order to do this it first traces the different discourses on empowerment and proposes an analytical framework based on multiple levels of analysis and a dialectical view of power Second it examines how the process of state formation and later peacebuilding have shaped the spaces for local empowerment to occur in Mozambique Finally it offers a detailed analysis of a national policy called the District Development Fund the 7 million designed in the context of decentralization and aimed at reducing poverty in this country This case study helps reflecting on the long term and derivative effects of peace both in institutional terms as well as at the level of the everyday The holistic approach to empowerment offered in this book and its application in the case of Mozambique will be of interest to both academics as well as practitioners of peacebuilding and development

Boundaries and Frontiers of Labour Law Guy Davidov, Brian Langille, 2006-11-06 Labour law has always been preoccupied with boundaries One can either be an employee or not an employer or not and the answer dictates who comes within the scope of labour law for better or worse But such divisions have always been difficult and in recent years their shortcomings have become ever more pronounced The proliferation of new work arrangements and heightened global competition have exposed a world wide crisis in the regulation of work It is therefore timely to re assess the idea of labour law and the concepts in particular the age old distinctions that are used to delimit the field This collection of essays by leading experts from around the world explores the frontiers of our understanding of labour law itself Contributors Harry Arthurs Paul Benjamin Hugh Collins Guy Davidov Paul Davies Simon Deakin Mark Freedland Judy Fudge Adrin Goldin Alan Hyde Jean Claude Javillier Csilla Kollonay Lehoczky Brian Langille Enriqu Marin Kamala Sankaran Silvana Sciarra Katherine Stone and Anne Trebilcock

Global Empowerment of Women Carolyn M. Elliott, 2007-12-12 The empowerment of women is a broadly endorsed strategy for solving a host of difficult problems from child poverty to gender violence to international development The seventeen international scholars in this multi disciplinary volume offer thoughtful critiques of the notion of empowerment based on their studies in twenty countries in all regions of the world The comparative introduction places concepts of empowerment in the context of models of the market and of community showing how contradictions in these models as they are enacted on the ground provide both spaces and constraints for women The chapters consider opportunities for women in the context of globalization resurgent nationalism and politicized religion cultures of masculinity and the HIV AIDS epidemic in Africa They show how initiatives at national or global levels are transformed by local cultures and power structures and demonstrate the fruitfulness of tensions between universal values of human rights and contextualized understandings This landmark multi disciplinary collection of original studies by distinguished international feminist scholars will be an essential addition to the fields of Political Science Women s Studies Economics Sociology International Development and Environmental Studies

Poverty Reduction and Pro-Poor Growth The Role of Empowerment OECD,2012-04-27 Empowerment of those living in poverty is both a critical driver and an important measure of poverty reduction This report aims to build donor understanding of empowerment and how best to support it Information and Communication Technologies for Development. Strengthening Southern-Driven Cooperation as a Catalyst for ICT4D Petter Nielsen,Honest Christopher Kimaro,2019-04-25 The two volumes IFIP AICT 551 and 552 constitute the refereed proceedings of the 15th IFIP WG 9 4 International Conference on Social Implications of Computers in Developing Countries ICT4D 2019 held in Dar es Salaam Tanzania in May 2019 The 97 revised full papers and 2 short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 185 submissions The papers present a wide range of perspectives and disciplines including but not limited to public administration entrepreneurship business administration information technology for development information management systems organization studies philosophy and management They are organized in the following topical sections communities ICT enabled networks and development digital platforms for development ICT for displaced population and refugees How it helps How it hurts ICT4D for the indigenous by the indigenous and of the indigenous local technical papers pushing the boundaries new research methods theory and philosophy in ICT4D southern driven human computer interaction sustainable ICT informatics education and learning in a turbulent world doing the safari way Financing Roma Inclusion with European Structural Funds Joanna Kostka,2018-11-19 This book provides an analysis of the highly politicized field of Roma inclusion and addresses the controversies surrounding the effectiveness of funding initiatives derived from European Cohesion Policy It confronts the widely held notion that European financial transfers Structural Funds are highly suitable instruments to address the systemic causes of poverty and to facilitate changes towards substantive equality for Europe s largest ethnic minority Shedding critical light on the Structural Funds programme it offers an innovative approach to thinking about the value of European funding schemes and efficacy of national Roma inclusion strategies Multidisciplinary in approach it draws on rich interview material and literature from fields including policy implementation new public governance equality studies and political representation Financing Roma Inclusion with European Structural Funds examines the implementation of European funding in Spain and Slovakia two countries with contrasting policy outputs and offers a nuanced picture of the way European Cohesion Policy interacts with intricacies of domestic policy making It thus sheds light on the key challenges facing Roma inclusion strategies in contemporary Europe and will be of interest for scholars interested in European studies equality policy new public governance and minority studies      Global Justice and Recognition Theory Monica Mookherjee, 2023-06-16 In the light of intense international focus on ongoing forms of world poverty this book examines the potential of the concept of recognition in contemporary political philosophy to respond morally to this dire condition This book uses recognition theories to develop a two tiered response to the problem of global poverty First it highlights non degradation non humiliation and the avoidance of social suffering as essential components to the agency of the very poor This runs counter to liberal arguments that focus only on the deficit of basic material interests Second even if universal conditions of agency are met many of the world s extreme poor may still suffer domination The book argues that empowering the world s poor to resist domination is an essential response to global poverty By conceiving poverty in terms of agency and empowerment this book highlights the transnational relevance of recognition theory to one of the most crucial problems affecting a rapidly globalising world Global Justice and Recognition Theory will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in social and political philosophy political theory and global justice      Policy Matters Jose Antonio Ocampo, Jomo K.S., Sarbuland Khan, 2007 International Finance and Development offers a comprehensive survey of the major financing issues influencing economic development since the historic Monterrey Consensus of the International Conference on Financing for Development in 2002 As most recent international private capital flows have been unlikely to significantly enhance new productive investments in the developing countries it is necessary to design appropriate mechanisms to ensure they contribute to development However recent trends in official development financing offer some grounds for optimism although much more needs to be done External debt problems of many developing countries especially the least developed countries seem likely to continue to constrain their prospects for development The final part on systemic issues highlights new concerns and the modest progress in ensuring that the international monetary and financial system better serves economic growth and development throughout the world especially in the developing countries      Proceedings of the Fourth International Conference on the Ethiopian Economy Getnet Alemu, Getachew Yoseph, 2007      The Dhaka University Studies , 2017      IDS Bulletin , 2008      Journal of Economic Literature , 2005-12      Overcoming Inequality Unesco, 2008 Published jointly by the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization UNESCO      HMSO Agency Catalogue Great Britain. Her Majesty's Stationery Office, 2005      Assets, Livelihoods, and Social Policy Caroline O. N. Moser, Anis Ahmad Dani, 2008 Given the pervasiveness of the informal sector and the lack of adequate universal safety nets livelihoods of the poor depend heavily on their ability to access and accumulate assets obtain decent returns on those assets and use their asset base to manage risks The papers in this volume discuss the strategies adopted by people to accumulate assets through migration housing investments natural resources management and informal businesses and consider how an asset based social policy could enable those strategies or help them overcome the constraints of an unfavorable institutional environment      Bibliographie Mensuelle United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland),2005-07

EFA Global Monitoring Report ,2009      Reducing Global Poverty Caroline O.N. Moser,2007-04-20 Provides a set of case studies of asset building projects around the globe aimed at designing and implementing public policies that will increase the capital assets of the poor Highlights the ways in which poor households and communities can move out of poverty through longer term accumulation of capital assets Provided by publisher      Empowerment in Practice Ruth Alsop,Mette Frost Bertelsen,Jeremy Holland,2006 This publication examines the empowerment approach to development that is empowering the poor in developing countries to improve their individual circumstances Poverty reduction is at the heart of the empowerment issue and the development of suitable and effective frameworks are required in order to push forward the development prospects of the poor particularly through improved infrastructures within society but more importantly by designing policies and intervention approaches which can deliver improvements to individual lives This publication therefore seeks to help both policy makers and practitioners in establishing an empowerment framework to achieve the goal of reducing poverty The book contains five cases studies from Brazil Ethiopia Honduras Indonesia and Nepal detailing efforts to apply the empowerment framework each working in a different sector
