Playing Dead A Contemplation Concerning The Arctic:

Geografiktionen in der anglo-kanadischen Literatur Tamara Pianos, 2000 Playing Dead Rudy Wiebe, 1989 A collection of essays about the Canadian Arctic both land and people by a Canadian writer enamoured of the North

Literarische Kartographien des kanadischen Nordens Petra Wittke-Rüdiger, 2005 Refractions of Canada in European Literature and Culture Heinz Antor, Gordon Bölling, Annette Kern-Stähler, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2012-05-02 Ever since the first exploratory expeditions in the early modern period North America has epitomized to Europeans a promise and the hope for the fulfilment of great expectations be it of more freedom greater wealth social liberation or religious tolerance While numerous features in this dialogic intercontinental relationship will hold true for North America in its entirety the vast northern territories which we know as Canada today began to emerge early on as a specific iconic location in European mind maps and they definitely acquired a distinctive profile after the formation of the USA As a rich source of cultural exchange and an important partner in political and economic cooperation Canada has come to occupy an important position in the cultural discourses of many European nations It is these refractions and images of Canada which this volume thoroughly explores in European literature and culture The contributions include literature philosophy language life writing and the concept of Heimat homeland as well as the cultural impact of the World Wars While there is an emphasis on literary texts other fields of cultural representation are also included Post-Empire Imaginaries? Barbara Buchenau, Virginia Richter, 2015-07-28 Empires as political entities may be a thing of the past but as a concept empire is alive and kicking From heritage tourism and costume dramas to theories of the imperial idea l empire sells Post Empire Imaginaries Anglophone Literature History and the Demise of Empires presents innovative scholarship on the lives and legacies of empires in diverse media such as literature film advertising and the visual arts Though rooted in real space and history the post empire and its twin the post imperial emerge as ungraspable ideational constructs The volume convincingly establishes empire as welcoming resistance and affirmation introducing post empire imaginaries as figurations that connect the archives and repertoires of colonial nostalgia postcolonial critique post imperial dreaming Projections of Paradise , 2011-01-01 Paradise is commonly imagined as a place of departure or arrival beginning and closure permanent inhabitation of which however much desired is illusory This makes it the dream of the traveller the explorer the migrant hence a trope recurrent in postcolonial writing which is so centrally concerned with questions of displacement and belonging Projections of Paradise documents this concern and demonstrates the indebtedness of writers as diverse as Salman Rushdie Agha Shahid Ali Cyril Dabydeen Bernardine Evaristo Amitav Ghosh James Goonewardene Romesh Gunsekera Abdulrazak Gurnah Janette Turner Hospital Penelope Lively Fatima Mernissi Michael Ondaatje Shyam Selvadurai M G Vassanji and Rudy Wiebe to strikingly similar myths of fulfilment In writing directly or indirectly about the experience of migration all project paradises as places of origin or destination as homes left or not yet found as objects of nostalgic recollection or hopeful anticipation Yet in locating such places quite specifically in Egypt Zanzibar Kashmir Sri Lanka the Sundarbans Canada the Caribbean Queensland Morocco Tuscany Russia the Arctic the USA and England they also subvert received fantasies of paradise as a pleasurable land rich with natural beauty Projections of Paradise explores what happens to these fantasies and what remains of them as postcolonial writings call them into question and expose the often hellish realities from which popular dreams of ideal elsewhere are commonly meant to provide an escape Contributors Vera Alexander Gerd Bayer Derek Coyle Geetha Ganapathy Dor Evelyne Hanquart Turner Ursula Kluwick Janne Korkka Marta Mamet Michalkiewicz Sofia Mu oz Valdieso Susanne Pichler Helga Ramsey Kurz Ulla Ratheiser Petra Tournay Thedotou Ethical Encounters Janne

Korkka,2013-09-01 The problems of knowing and representing the other are acute every time we encounter a text as writers or readers Ethical Encounters engages with the representation of encounters with alterity in the writings of the Canadian author Rudy Wiebe Drawing on Emmanuel Levinas s philosophy on the ethics of encountering the other the book argues that Wiebe s writings show that the self s knowledge offers an inadequate basis for ethically valid representations of those encounters In the search for ethical ways of engaging with alterity Wiebe s writings offer new ways of employing silence and the presence of the unknowable as means to explore encounters with alterity Ethical Encounters shows that dividing Wiebe s work into two sharply distinct categories of Mennonite and First Nations writings overlooks important connections between the author s central works and may seriously hinder the interrogation of narrative engagement with alterity While such human encounters resonate against ethical strategies of representation the greatest challenge for the ethics of encounter in Wiebe s texts arises in encounters with the alterity of space Ethical Encounters engages with both physical and narrative spaces which are not permanently fixed in landscape or geography or in human perceptions of place arguing that the most radical expressions of alterity in Wiebe s writings emerge in encounters with the spaces of the Canadian North The study raises questions about the relationship between the self and the other as they concern knowing what does the self know when it claims to know another person or space How does the narrating self negotiate the seeming collapse of its own knowledge when it encounters others whose stories cannot be known Ethical Encounters casts new light not just on Wiebe s writings but also on how we as authors and readers engage with expressions of alterity which refuse to be transformed into familiar knowable forms Janne Korkka is post doctoral researcher and coordinator of the North American Studies programme in the Department of English University of Turku Finland His main research interests lie in the problems of representing space and encountering alterity in Canadian writing He is co editor of Seeking the Self Encountering the Other Diasporic Narrative and the Ethics of Representation 2008 He teaches Canadian and postcolonial literatures and North American Studies and publishes mainly on Canadian writing Shared Waters Stella Borg Barthet,2009 The present volume contains general essays on unequal African Western academic exchange the state and structure of postcolonial studies representing male violence in Zimbabwe s wars parihaka in the poetic imagination of Aotearoa New Zealand Middle Eastern Nigerian
