Leahy, 2000 Plays by French and Francophone Women Christiane P. Makward, Judith Graves Miller, Cynthia Running-Johnson, 1994 A rich collection of plays by French and francophone women writers in English translation Lives in Play Ryan Claycomb, 2012-08-08 Life writing's significance in women's theater and performance from the 70s to the present Moving Target Carole-Ann Upton, 2014-07-22 Moving Target offers a rigorous exploration of the practice of translating for the theatre The twelve essays in the volume span a range of work from Eastern and Western Europe Canada and the United States For the first time this book draws together existing translation theory with contemporary practice to shed light on a hitherto neglected aspect of the production process How does the theatre translator mediate between source text performance text and target audience What happens when theatre is transposed from one culture to another What are the obstacles to theatre translation and what are the opportunities Central to the debate throughout is the role of the translator in creating not only a linguistic text but also a performance text as the contributors repeatedly demonstrate an illuminating sensibility to the demands and potential of theatre production Impacting upon areas of inter-cultural theory as well as theatre studies and translation studies the result is a startling revelation of the joys as well as the frustrations of the dramatic art of the translator for performance Plays and Players, 1993 Hélène Cixous and

the Theatre Julia Dobson, 2002 The theatre both as metaphor and practice is central to Cixous writing yet has rarely been accorded the importance it merits within her oeuvre The constant concerns of her work are represented and explored in plays which address individual and collective stories of difference exile love and writing This book offers a clear contextualisation of Cixous theatre alongside detailed analyses of individual plays and argues for a reading of Cixous theatre as a dramatisation of the writing process

The Writing Notebooks Helene Cixous, 2004-05-18 Helene Cixous is one of the most brilliant and radical of contemporary theorists This is the first publication in any language of Cixous own Notebooks illustrating the concept of écriture féminine and offering new insights into Cixous theoretical insistence on writing and her own practice as a writer Cixous Notebooks exemplify how writing creates unique possibilities for circumventing the mistruths that shape us as subjects and which organize our relations with the world The Writing Notebooks opens with an introduction which outlines the central points of Cixous notion of writing The main body of the work is comprised of 60 photographic extracts from the Notebooks each extract accompanied by editorial annotation and a translation into English The book concludes with a new interview with Cixous on the value of the Notebooks the process of writing and her own fiction Cixous Notebooks will be invaluable to students of literature psychoanalysis philosophy and feminism
