Please Tell Me:

Heart, Soul, And Mind Melinda Taylor, 2015-04-13 This is a book of all of my poems about my life feelings thoughts emotions beliefs values and morals Most poems are about me people I know relationships I have been in experiences I have had and some that are made up and have nothing to do with me personally and were inspired by a poetry site I love to write poetry and have wanted to publish my poems for a long time I hope to publish them and to write and publish more I also hope that people will enjoy my poems be able to relate to them and will get something good out of them I want to give people a positive experience the same way that I feel positive about writing them I would be happy if my poems helped anyone since I love to help people I also would be excited if I made any money from the exposure Thank you for reading Citizen Support for Democratic and Autocratic Regimes Marlene Mauk, 2020-04-30 Citizen Support for Democratic and Autocratic Regimes takes a political culture perspective on the struggle between democracy and autocracy by examining how these regimes fare in the eyes of their citizens Taking a globally comparative approach it studies both the levels as well as the individual and system level sources of political support in democracies and autocracies worldwide The book develops an explanatory model of regime support which includes both individual and system level determinants and specifies not only the general causal mechanisms and pathways through which these determinants affect regime support but also spells out how these effects might vary between the two types of regimes It empirically tests its propositions using multi level structural equation modeling and a comprehensive dataset that combines recent public opinion data from six cross national survey projects with aggregate data from various sources for more than 100 democracies and autocracies It finds that both the levels and individual level sources of regime support are the same in democracies and autocracies but that the way in which system level context factors affect regime support differs between the two types of regimes The results enhance our understanding of what determines citizen support for fundamentally different regimes help assessing the present and future stability of democracies and autocracies and provide clear policy implications to those interested in strengthening support for democracy and or fostering democratic change in autocracies Comparative Politics is a series for researchers teachers and students of political science that deals with contemporary government and politics Global in scope books in the series are characterised by a stress on comparative analysis and strong methodological rigour The series is published in association with the European Consortium for Political Research For more information visit www.ecprnet.eu The series is edited by Susan Scarrow Chair of the Department of Political Science University of Houston and Jonathan Slapin Professor Department of Political Science University of Zurich Cambodian, Basic Course: Units 1-45 Foreign Service Institute, Richard B.
