Burke, 1991      Pleasure and Pain Emily Burke, 1991-08      African American Life in the Georgia Lowcountry Philip Morgan, 2011-11-01 The lush landscape and subtropical climate of the Georgia coast only enhance the air of mystery enveloping some of its inhabitants people who owe in some ways as much to Africa as to America As the ten previously unpublished essays in this volume examine various aspects of Georgia lowcountry life they often engage a central dilemma the region's physical and cultural remoteness helps to preserve the venerable ways of its black inhabitants but it can also marginalize the vital place of lowcountry blacks in the Atlantic World The essays which range in coverage from the founding of the Georgia colony in the early 1700s through the present era explore a range of topics all within the larger context of the Atlantic world Included are essays on the double edged freedom that the American Revolution made possible to black women the lowcountry as site of the largest gathering of African Muslims in early North America and the coexisting worlds of Christianity and conjuring in coastal Georgia and the links with variations to African practices A number of fascinating memorable characters emerge among them the defiant Mustapha Shaw who felt entitled to land on Ossabaw Island and resisted its seizure by whites only to become embroiled in struggles with other blacks Betty the slave woman who in the spirit of the American Revolution presented a list of grievances to her master and S Quash the Arabic speaking Muslim who arrived on one of the last legal transatlantic slavers and became a head man on a North Carolina plantation Published in association with the Georgia Humanities Council      Women's Activist Organizing in US History , 2022-04-12 Women in the United States organized around their own sense of a distinct set of needs skills and concerns And just as significant as women's acting on their own behalf was the fact that race class sexuality and ethnicity shaped their strategies and methods This authoritative anthology presents some of the powerful work and ideas about activism published in the acclaimed series Women Gender and Sexuality in American History Assembled to commemorate the series thirty fifth anniversary the collection looks at two hundred years of labor activist legal political and community organizing by women against racism misogyny white supremacy and inequality The authors confront how the multiple identities of an organization's members presented challenging dilemmas and share the histories of how women created change by working against inequitable social and structural systems Insightful and provocative Women's Activist Organizing in US History draws on both classic texts and recent bestsellers to reveal the breadth of activism by women in the United States in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Contributors Daina Ramey Berry Melinda Chateaufort Tiffany M Gill Nancy A Hewitt Treva B Lindsey Anne Firor Scott Charissa J Threat Anne M Valk Lara Vapnek and Deborah Gray White      Women of the American South Christie Farnham, 1997-11 Never before has a book of southern history so successfully integrated the experiences of white and non white women Discrediting the myth of the Southern belle the book brings to light the lives of Cherokee women Appalachian coal daughters and Jewish women in the South The essays all but one published here for the first time fill crucial gaps in southern history and women s history

Pleasure and Pain, Reminiscences of Georgia in the 1840's Emily P. Burke,1978      From Chattel Slaves to Wage Slaves Mary Turner,1995 a very welcome addition to the literature on labour history Labour History Review This is a valuable collection of essays which gives fresh perspectives and interesting empirical data on the modes of labor bargaining by New World slaves and on the transition from chattel to wage slavery New West Indian Guide Nieuwe West Indische Gids Of uniformly high quality these essays underline the fluidity and dynamic of bargaining processes the diversity of political and economic contexts and the importance of external factors will provoke discussion on parallels between capitalist agriculture and capitalist industrial organization and will fuel debates on slave as proletarian and on the notions of peasant breach and the two economies Choice These essays provide important answers to questions relating to levels of slave subsistence the material conditions of the enslaved the control mechanisms of owners the contexts which generated labor bargaining on the part of the enslaved and the reasons owners employers acquiesced to laborers demands rather than rely on the coercive power of the whip Labor History The contributors deserve commendation for making salutary advances towards developing an integrated analysis of the history of labouring people in slavery and freedom that transcends the particularities of their legal status Slavery Abolition this collection addresses an important topic and will serve as a valuable resource for scholars and students of comparative slavery in the Americas Judy Bieber University of New Mexico Albuquerque The status of labor during slavery and post emancipation in the Caribbean and the Americas Contributors investigate the terms under which slaves in the Caribbean the Southern States and Latin America worked and how they struggled to establish informal contract terms

A Separate Civil War Jonathan Dean Sarris,2006 Most Americans think of the Civil War as a series of dramatic clashes between massive armies led by romantic seeming leaders But in the Appalachian communities of North Georgia things were very different Focusing on Fannin and Lumpkin counties in the Blue Ridge Mountains along Georgia s northern border A Separate Civil War Communities in Conflict in the Mountain South argues for a more localized idiosyncratic understanding of this momentous period in our nation s history The book reveals that for many participants this war was fought less for abstract ideological causes than for reasons tied to home family friends and community Making use of a large trove of letters diaries interviews government documents and sociological data Jonathan Dean Sarris brings to life a previously obscured version of our nation s most divisive and destructive war From the outset the prospect of secession and war divided Georgia s mountain communities along the lines of race and religion and war itself only heightened these tensions As the Confederate government began to draft men into the army and seize supplies from farmers many mountaineers became more disaffected still They banded together in armed squads fighting off Confederate soldiers state militia and their own pro Confederate neighbors A local civil war ensued with each side seeing the other as a threat to law order and community itself In this very personal conflict both factions came to dehumanize their enemies and use methods that shocked even seasoned soldiers with their savagery But when the war was over in 1865 each faction sought to sanitize the past and integrate its stories into the national myths later popularized about the Civil War By arguing that the reason for choosing sides had more to do with local concerns than with competing ideologies or social or political visions Sarris adds a much needed complication to the question of why men fought in the Civil War All That She Carried Tiya Miles,2023-04-06 SHORTLISTED FOR THE WOMEN S PRIZE FOR NON FICTION LONGLISTED FOR THE BAILLIE GIFFORD PRIZE FOR NON FICTION NATIONAL BOOK AWARD WINNER NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER WINNER OF THE CUNDILL HISTORY PRIZE An astonishing account of love resilience and survival Sunday Times A remarkable book New York Times An extraordinary tale through the generations Guardian In 1850s South Carolina Rose an enslaved woman faced a crisis the imminent sale of her daughter Ashley Thinking quickly she packed a cotton bag with a few items Soon after the nine year old girl was separated from her mother and sold Decades later Ashley s granddaughter Ruth embroidered this family history on the sack in spare haunting language That in itself is a story But it s not the whole story How does one uncover the lives of people who in their day were considered property Harvard historian Tiya Miles carefully traces these women s faint presence in archival records and where archives fall short she turns to objects art and the environment to write a singular history of the experience of slavery and the uncertain freedom afterward All That She Carried gives us history as it was lived a poignant story of resilience and love passed down against steep odds

You Are Not Addicted to Cigarette Smoking You Are Starving Anthony Shkreli,2012-04-27 The last book on smoking cessation Cigarette smoking has long been held to be an enigma Why do people smoke And why is it so difficult to quit despite the so called treatments that are peddled about The stunning answer demonstrated within the pages of this book is that tobacco smoking is not an addiction rather it is a result of starvation But it is not the starvation everyone is familiar with It is a special cellular starvation for a special nutrient known as the Magic Mineral Strangely the correlation between the Magic Mineral and tobacco has been known by ancient Indian tribes for thousands of years But even more astonishing is that when the Magic Mineral is incorporated into the diet of an individual who smokes tobacco the desire for smoking will end The Florida Historical Quarterly Florida Historical Society,1979 Literary Savannah Patrick Allen,1998 An anthology of fiction and nonfiction about Savannah The First Twenty-five Years of the Beehive Press ,1995
